

Walmsley gets nod for GC High School principal

GILBERT WALMSLEY

By BILL WINTER
of the Press-Record

Gilbert V. Walmsley, North principal, will be principal of the combined Granite City High School, James L. Dumont, South principal, will be promoted to a key administrative position in the school system's central office.

These and other decisions for the 1983-84 school year were made during a marathon session of the Board of Education on Saturday afternoon.

All four principals whose grade school buildings will be closed in June were retained as principals and transferred to other schools.

Alfred J. Wilson will transfer in 1983-84 from Emerson School to Marshall School, replacing Richard R. Ault.

Edward Gonyea will transfer from Lake School to Maryville School, succeeding John A. Mulach.

Donald E. Kopp will move from Nameoki School to Frohardt School, where he will replace Gary L. Frohardt. Part of the Nameoki attendance area will be assigned to Frohardt.

And William Richard Brinkhoff will transfer from Johnson School to the Prather-Logan School, which will serve the Logan area and parts of the Emerson and Johnson areas.

Fred E. Noeth is principal of Logan. That building will not be used in 1983-84. As noted, Logan pupils will attend the nearby Prather building, which is being changed from a junior high school to an elementary school.

Continuing as principals at the junior high school level will be Michael Sikora of Coolidge and Charles R. Weiss of Grigsby. Instead of three junior highs, two schools will serve seventh and eighth grade pupils in the coming year. Calvin L. Bartels is principal of Prather Junior High.

Board office post for Dumont

Many administrative positions remain to be filled, and some are likely to be decided by the board tomorrow night.

Four of the 13 elementary school territories are being eliminated, reducing the overall number of grade school principals to nine. Assignments for Ault, Mulach, Pfroender and Noeth have not yet been decided.

Continuing at their present elementary schools will be five principals—Arthur E. Menendez of Mitchell, Harry A. Briggs Jr. of Niedringhaus, Mrs. Agnes P. Fryntko of Parkview, James J. Jeffries of Webster and Theodore L. Vrenick of Wilson School. These five and (Alfred) Wilson, Gonyea, Kopp and Brinkhoff will be the nine building administrators in charge of the teaching of kindergarten through sixth grade children as of next fall.

Area bids M*A*S*H farewell

By GARY SCHNEIDER and NANCY WEIL
of the Press-Record

M*A*S*H being shown tonight range from "I've got five boxes of Kleenex" to "who cares," but whatever the sentiments, virtually everyone has an opinion about the show which is leaving TV, except for re-runs, after 11 years.

Critically acclaimed for 10 of the 11 years, M*A*S*H, in its first season, was switched to various time slots and nearly was cancelled. As the writers, Larry Gelbert and Bert Metcalfe, argued with CBS and Twentieth Century Fox for creative license and won, the show started on its steady road of success.

It has been honored through the years with various awards. In keeping with its acclaim, several local establishments are having special events to celebrate M*A*S*H tonight.

Buck and Jan's Den, 2401 State St., will show the movie and offer specials from 4 p.m. to midnight for anyone in a M*A*S*H tee-shirt or costume. Co-owner Jan Pyatt said she usually watches the show about the longest war.

The "war" has always been classified as a "conflict." The Korean Conflict was unpopular at the time and lasted a mere three years, compared to the longevity of the TV show.

Other watering holes planning to give the show and the "conflict" a sendoff include Geo's, located behind McDonalds Restaurant.

Manager Greg Smith said the bar will offer specials and, when asked if he is a M*A*S*H fan, said, "Sure. Isn't everybody. Especially now."

The "especially now" rings true with many local people who previously showed little or no interest in the program. The joke around the newscroom about those who never before cared about the show, but now can't wait to see tonight's special, goes something like this: "There's nothing like becoming an addict just as the heroin supply runs out."

To appease the "addicts," the Sports Tap, 916 Niedringhaus Ave., will show the program and provide sandwiches and specials. According to owner Jim Rains, the day manager, Terry Balcer, is quite a M*A*S*H addict and can answer just about any trivia question concerning the show.

The Last Great M*A*S*H Bash will begin at 7 tonight at Stage's, behind St.

Fr. Mulcahy greets Sister Mary Thomas

By NANCY WEIL
of the Press-Record

The crowd waiting to see Bill Christopher, who plays Father Mulcahy on M*A*S*H, while he was in the area Friday was evidence of area residents' attempts to have one last contact with M*A*S*H before it becomes nothing more than reruns.

The crowd to see Christopher continued to swell even as 11 a.m. grew nearer.

Christopher was autographing posters for the throng at the Venture Store in Fairview Heights Friday for an hour, starting at 10 a.m. While some went away disappointed because personnel at the store requested at 10:45 that Christopher stop signing autographs and instead shake hands with the remaining people, the actor did his best to charm the disgruntled.

Included among those who went to see Christopher was Sister Mary Thomas, president of St. Elizabeth

Medical Center, which is celebrating its own M*A*S*H day today. When she approached the table where he was seated, Christopher said, "It's nice to see a real member (of the religious order he portrays)."

Partney wins suit against Brimberry

"Justice prevailed." Daniel Partney told the Press-Record Friday in commenting on the $1,000,000 awarded to him in his defamation suit against Thomas R. Brimberry.

Whether the judgment will ever be paid remains unclear. There are many large claims against Brimberry, who faces 15 federal charges stemming from his financial activities and from the collapse of the Stix & Co. stock brokerage.

Brimberry alleged giving between $50,000 and $75,000 in unreported gifts to Partney's 1981 mayor campaign treasury.

The candidate said only $500 was contributed and that the allegation of major gifts harmed his image, his business and his governmental service.

Partney, 33, son of the late Donald Partney Sr., mayor of Granite City from 1965 to 1973, ran unsuccessfully for mayor in 1977 and 1981. He was elected to the Madison County Board from District 21 in 1974 and continued to be re-elected until resigning last year. He did not seek re-election in 1982.

An officer of Granite Sheet Metal Works, he sued Brimberry for $4 million in March 1982.

The former brokerage senior vice-president, 37, was in Arizona at the time but his location was not pinpointed publicly; some said he was "under federal protection."

Then, in mid-December 1982, he was arrested in Arizona and confined at the St. Clair County jail in Belleville.

Circuit Judge William Johnson conducted a hearing on the suit in January and a hearing on the amount of the award in February. In both cases, neither Brimberry nor a lawyer attended to voice a defense. The prisoner now is at a federal prison hospital in Springfield, Mo.

"It's behind me now," Partney said in noting that it will be up to attorneys to pursue possible collection of the monetary award.

A petition seeking Brimberry's cash and tangible assets was filed in February 1982 by Harry O. Moline Jr., court-appointed Stix case trustee, who later named Attorney Irvin Slate Jr. to assist him in the task of finding assets.

The petition says such funds ought to be made available to creditors, including those whose Stix & Co. accounts were looted.

A home in Arizona is owned outright by Brimberry but there are liens

Preparedness week brings memories of 1981 GC tornado

By VALERIE EVENDEN
of the Press-Record

With the start of the 1983 tornado season in Illinois, memories still linger here of a "relatively small" tornado that destroyed 13 homes in Granite City, injured more than 21 persons and left more than $1.5 million damage in its wake on April 3, 1981.

Its mark has been stamped on many residents, and recollections of the aftermath of damage and misery may surface during Tornado Preparedness Week, which starts today throughout Illinois.

In coordination with a statewide exercise, the Granite City Emergency Services and Disaster Agency (Civil Defense) will conduct its annual tornado drill Tuesday.

Victor H. Koenig, local ESDA coordinator, said many groups in the community will take part in the drill, including St. Elizabeth Medical Center, all local schools, weather watchers and police, fire and fire services. Normal and emergency communication systems also will be tested.

Tomorrow's exercise is being conducted in cooperation with the National Weather Service and the Illinois State Police.

It will test communication, warning and recovery capabilities in Granite City and all other areas of the state in preparation for the 1983 tornado season this spring.

The drill will be initiated by the National Weather Service and then broadcast via Illinois State Police frequency 42.5 MHz and National Weather Service KDO 89 to Emergency Warning-Alert Radio receivers in thousands of schools, institutions, hospitals and factories statewide, Koenig said.

When the receivers are activated and the network of warning sirens sounds throughout this community, students in all public and parochial schools will be reminded of the drill procedure.

Most of the pupils will leave their classroom areas, moving away from outside walls and windows. They also

New school attendance zones

The attendance boundary between Coolidge and Grigsby junior high schools will be the same as that between North and South high schools, the Board of Education decided Saturday afternoon.

New elementary school zones also were set. And every attendance boundary in the school district was revised to some extent.

The junior high boundary line for 1983-84 runs east down the middle of Pontoon Road, and then south along the middle of Maryville Road from its intersection with Pontoon Road.

In general, the southwest portion of the district will attend Coolidge, matching the South territory, and the northeast area will go to Grigsby, corresponding with the North attendance zone.

The high school attendance area will be easy to define. The entire Community Unit School District Nine high school enrollment will report to the former South building, North will be closed.

As part of the district's economy moves, only 12 of the 18 buildings will be operated next year.

There will be one instead of two high schools; two instead of three junior highs; and nine instead of 13 grade schools.

High school attendance need fall is estimated at 2,900 to 3,000. Seventh and eighth graders going to the two junior high schools will total about 900 at Coolidge and 650 at Grigsby.

Projected elementary school enrollments for 1983-84 are as follows:

Prather-Logan (former Prather Junior High), 791 pupils, or 86 percent building utilization; Mitchell, 605 children, 77 percent use.

Frohardt, 516 students, 85 percent use; Wilson School, 514 pupils, 64 percent (utilization of Wilson represents greater use than the percentage in dedicates, due to limits on the size of possible school assignments was:

Maryville, 508 children, 83 percent; Parkview, 479 pupils, 80 percent; Niedringhaus, 454 students, 84 percent; Webster, 402 pupils, 94 percent; and Marshall School, 374 students, 86 percent.

In general, as little disruption as possible in school assignments was sought. Walking rather than busing was emphasized, and railroad crossings were avoided in establishing probable bus routes.

Descriptions of the new elementary school zones follow:

Prather-Logan, 2200 W. 25th St. Consists of the Logan area, plus parts of the Johnson and Emerson areas. This zone is west of Madison Avenue, south of the middle of 22nd Street, west of the railroad tracks and south of the Briarcliff area.

Mitchell, 316 E. Chain of Rocks Road.

Mitchell area and part of the Johnson School area, including Briarcliff. Bus transportation will be by way of Old Alton Road. Included in the zone will be an area east of Long Lake and north of Pontoon Road.

Frohardt, 2040 Johnson Road. Frohardt territory plus part of the Nameoki School area. Boundaries are Nameoki Road, St. Clair Avenue, Edgewood Avenue, a line between the Emert and Gary areas, Maryville, a line easterly extending Riviera and Del Rio, Alton & Southern tracks, Illinois Terminal tracks, Lake Drive, Pontoon Road, Wabash Avenue and the main railroad tracks.

Wilson, 2400 Wilson Ave. The Wilson area and part of the Lake School area. The zone is east of a line between the Sunset and Dale neighborhoods, plus territory south of the middle of St. Clair Avenue. It includes the Stallings area

Job Awareness Day for Handicapped April 15

A Job Awareness Day for the Handicapped will be conducted Friday, April 15, from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. at Englebert Hall, 10th Street and Washington Avenue in Madison. The Job Awareness Day is being conducted for the fourth year and was formerly titled Job Fair for the Handicapped.

Sponsors are the Parents for Special Education and Region 1 Special Education District. The program is open to all special education high school students and handicapped adults.

Local business and industry representatives are being invited to attend and encourage proper training for jobs in their various fields. Employers with job openings will have applications available.

Employers interested in attending may call Dorothy Lijewski, 676-0451, or Kay Hahne, 451-9832.

The purpose of the Job Awareness Day for the handicapped is to promote community awareness of the employability of the handicapped and job options they may have. Englebert Hall is handicapped accessible. An interpreter for the hearing-impaired will be in attendance. There is no charge.

The committee for the day consist of Lijewski, Hahne, Carolyn Smoot, Melba Grady of the Parents for Special Education, Stu Mills, Robert Gagliano, Betty Hudak, Region 1, and Donald Hagen of the Illinois Job Service.

City Temple honors Royal Rangers of Year

Royal Ranger Outpost 94 of City Temple Assembly of God Church, 4751 Maryville Road, held a special Council of Achievement.

The flags were carried in by Steve Davis and Scott Mahoney. Bobby Bradford led the pledge to the American flag and Steve Perigo led the pledge to the Christian flag. Jeff Held gave the Royal Ranger pledge and Scott Kosatenki led the Royal Ranger code. Warren Kostencki recited the 23rd Psalm.

City Temple's new pastor, the Rev. James Burnette, opened the ceremony with prayer. Jeff Held performed a guitar solo, playing "Just a Closer Walk with Thee."

Service stars were then distributed by Commander Les Wiles and Outpost Councilman Rich Bywater. Those receiving stars were: Steve Moutria, Matt Bowles, Jeff Held, Michael Held, Commander Mike Held, all with three years; Steve Perigo, four years; Scott Mahoney, three years; Darryl Pearson, six years; Jerry Weaver, Jeff Stephens, Bobby Bradford, all with four years; Commander Ron Renier, 11 years.

The Pioneers performed a skit that required "Making a Racket" for playing tennis. Sectional Commander Clarence Howard led the Rangers in the "skunk applause."

Straight Arrow Lt. Commander Carl Holens presented the Brave pin to Jeremy Skinner, Shannon Wolfe received a certificate for the Straight Arrow of the Month for December '82 and January '83.

Commander Mike Pryor presented the Buckaroo awards to Tim Bryan the buckaroo of the month for December '82, Danny Holmes and Derek Wolfe tied for January '83. Each received a certificate. Dennis Johnson, Eric Burnette, Marty Wolfe, Mark Pearson and Shawn Worthen each received a Greenhorn pin. Billy Campbell, Derek Wolfe, Jeff Malone, and Tim Bryan earned Wrangler pins.

Pioneer Commander Don Kurtz presented certificates to Wayne Burnette and Warren Kostencki for passing recruit. Jeff Stephens was the pioneer of the month for December and Jeff Held received the honor for January.

Commanders Jerry Wolfe and Roy Renner gave trailblazer awards to David Basso, recruit; Randy Wolfe, hobby award; Steve Moutria, physical fitness; and Scott Mahoney, tool craft. Randy Wolfe was honored for being the trailblazer of the month for December and January.

Lt. Commander Greg Moutria gave certificates to Michael Held for trail ranger for December and January.

The Trailblazer Outpost performed a skit involving an ugly man.

Outpost Councilman Dan Kostencki presented the special awards of the evening. Wayne Burnette and Eric Burnette each received a trophy and a superman watch for their efforts in selling tickets to the annual chili dinner. Each boy raised over $50. A special trophy was presented to Commander Mike Held for his work in selling discount coupon books.

Two Gold Medal of Achievement members were honored as the leaders presented plaques of appreciation to Billy Perigo and Rick Renner.

The Trail Rangers performed the new skit, involving Lt. Commander Keith Moutria.

The Royal Rangers of the year for 1982 were presented with plaques and a pin to wear on their uniforms. The Straight Arrow is Shannon Wolfe, the buckaroo was a tie between Danny Holmes and Warren Kostencki, the pioneer was Luis Sanjurjo, trailblazer, Randy Wolfe and trail ranger of the year was Billy Perigo. Most of these boys will represent the outpost in competition on the sectional, district, regional and national level as Royal Rangers of the year.

Danny Holmes recited all the books of the Bible in front of the audience, as a demonstration of the Royal Rangers program.

Speaker of the evening was James Burnette.

After the closing prayer, refreshments were served in the fellowship hall.

Coming events include a pine wood derby in March, sectional camporee in June, District Pow Wow in September.

Those interested in Royal Rangers, are advised to contact Senior Commander Les Wiles, 876-1112 or a local Assembly of God Church.

TARLAS FILES SUIT, ALLEGES NON-PAYMENT

John Tarlas and Diane Karnages of Tarlas Food Co., 1200 Greenwood St., Madison, filed suit recited in Madison County Circuit Court against Costello's Restaurant, Inc., of Belleville.

Tarlas delivered $17,401 of merchandise to Costello's, successor to Tony's Restaurant, but was never paid, the suit alleges.

The plaintiffs are alleging two counts of non-payment against the defendants and are seeking the merchandise price, plus interest and costs.

Argues with police, arrested

A Granite City man was charged with disorderly conduct by Madison police when he went to police headquarters and allegedly threatened an officer who had given him a traffic citation for disobeying a stop sign.

Brian A. Fuzessery, 24, of 1439 Madison Ave., allegedly violated a stop sign at Seventh Street in Madison last week as he was southbound on Alton Avenue. Fuzessery had to quickly swerve to the right to avoid hitting a Madison police car, it was reported.

Fuzessery was stopped at Sken Street and McCambridge Avenue and, as the officer started to write a ticket, Fuzessery and a passenger allegedly exited the vehicle.

Fuzessery started "mouthing off" to the officer, police reports said. He allegedly said, "Let's forget this ticket and take off that blue uniform and fight about it."

The officer called for assistance and the passenger grabbed Fuzessery and pulled him toward the vehicle. Four other officers, including a Madison County sheriff's deputy, arrived at the scene and one of them advised the men to leave.

Fuzessery was given a citation for disobeying a stop sign. After leaving the area, Fuzessery allegedly stopped at the intersection of Highland Avenue and

'Summer and Smoke' a tribute to Williams

The late Tennessee Williams' "Summer and Smoke" will be staged by the University Theater of Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, Wednesday through Saturday, March 2 through 4.

All performances will be presented in the Communications Building theater and will begin at 8:15 p.m.

The play centers on the person of Alma Winemiller, a young Southern woman, daughter of a minister, who has difficulty accepting that part of herself and others, which is purely physical.

Caught up in unrealistic spiritual standards, she attempts to "reform" the man she loves, John Buchanan, the earthly son of a doctor, who feels that the body and its urges need to be recognized on par with spiritual matters.

Granite City residents in the play are William C. Burch (Rev. Winemiller), Marsha Fisher (Nelle) and Norma Mendoza (Mrs. Bassett).

Direction of the play is by William W. Vilhauer, chairman of the department of theater and dance at SIUE. Scenic design is by David J. Sill. Lighting is by Sandy Thomley and costumes by Joyce Kogut. The assistant director is Michael Steen, and stage manager is Kathy McCarthy.

Parking is free behind the theater building on nights of performance.

For more information, or to make reservations, interested persons may call 1-692-2773.

News notes

Approval is near for world's fairs at Paris in 1989 and jointly at Chicago and Seville, Spain, in 1992.

A hearing will be held in a November 1982 election contest by John Mull (R) of the 1,029 to 1,024 victory by Charles Burns (D), Madison County Board member from District 11. Mull challenges tallies in Saline, Marije, Pin Oak and Port Russell townships. Absentee ballots apparently were not counted.

The Congressional Budget Office predicts the Medicare hospital insurance trust fund will be depleted by late 1987 if Congress does not reduce spending or increase taxes. Factors are medical care costs, the growing size of the aging population, and increased use of services.

While hopes for a March school settlement are dim, his personally-launched "Project Help" remains on schedule to start distributions to those laid-off workers living under the day-to-day strain of making ends meet and keeping together what they have worked hard to accumulate.

One of the theories behind the program is that by easing families' food bills, the family cars or houses might be saved.

Benjamin Glasgow, Local 67 financial secretary and another groundwork organizer of the food program, describes the typical Granite City Steel union member needing help as a younger worker who has been laid off for an extended period of time and has exhausted all his unemployment benefits.

Donald Sharp, chairman of Local 67's Unemployment Committee, estimates that about 160 in his union local alone fit into that extended-laid-off category. In any three-day food supply and must wait at least 30 days before applying again.

Although Protestant Welfare will act as the food collection and distribution agency, all referrals will be made by local unions and churches. Those groups each will make its own decisions which unemployed members qualify for Project Help.

"As its initial effort, Church Women United will receive donated food at its World Day of Prayer celebration on March 4," according to project promoter Norma Zarulski, president of the church group.

Unemployment Committee Chairman Sharp, a Granite City Steel laborer, says it was learned from other prisoners that Anderson was trying to arrange for a jail employee's wife to be kidnapped. Her freedom then was to be exchanged for Anderson's release from custody.

Anderson was being held in Belleville after the sentencing, pending a decision as to which penitentiary would receive him. When the new kidnap plot was alleged, his sentence was speeded to end the matter.

Anderson, 42, of Pearland, was sentenced in January 1982 when word of a possible escape plan became known. Justus contacted U.S. marshals and Anderson soon was gone from St. Clair in their custody.

U.S. Attorney Frederick J. Hepler plans no additional charge.

In addition to the sentence on the local case, Florida and Virginia officials are investigating fires at abortion clinics. Anderson tried to persuade Dr. Zevallos to close a Granite City medical clinic.

Partney suif

against his other property, including a large residence on Parkview Drive in Granite City. He has borrowed $300,000 against the latter home to pay legal fees.

Judge Johnson's decision, announced at the Madison County Courthouse in Edwardsville last week, concludes that Brimberry defaulted in the defamation case by not appearing for motions during the hearings.

The judge said Partney suffered damage to his reputation and integrity in the community and also suffered loss of income, loss of his position as a County Board member, and potential financial losses associated with his reputation and political career.

Partney believes that the court order officially exonerates him of wrongdoing if there had been such a large contribution, he would have been required to report it.

Partney was cleared earlier in an investigation conducted by Madison County State's Attorney Don Weber.

"When the statement was made by Brimberry," the suit was filed," Partney related Friday. The allegation that unfounded statements caused the official to forfeit his public office was filed by Attorney Leon Scroggins.

Other than that the campaign gift claim was false, Partney was unable to explain why Brimberry did not send a representative to court.

Johnson certified that the defendant had full opportunity to be heard, and Brimberry has "lots of lawyers" who could have spoken out, Partney commented.

Among the federal counts that are argued in court this spring are that Brimberry lied and obstructed justice during the period after Stix collapsed and after Brimberry made an agreement to be truthful with federal investigators.

The assertion by Brimberry to a St. Louis reporter was that a large bundle of bills was handed to the candidate during the 1981 mayor campaign.

One transaction was said to have been in Brimberry's auto in January or February 1981, with other payments made in the back room of the campaign

headquarters and in Charlie's Restaurant.

Scroggins' response was that "we know Brimberry is an admitted thief (he agreed to plead guilty to a tax felony charge) and it is not unexpected that he'd also be a liar, if he saw fit."

Despite the assertions in a Post-Dispatch article in December 1981, Brimberry in a telephone conversation with the Press-Record March 12, 1981, said the only reason he had become involved in the April 1981 campaign was that a pastor had asked him to back the candidate.

"I bought $500 in fund-raising tickets," Brimberry said, adding that he did not attend the fund event because he was "in Hawaii at a party."

Partney is convinced that the $500 version is the one that is correct.

He said at the time of the allegation about "thousands of dollars" changing hands that Brimberry was seeking to discredit him "because he feels I am the one who 'pulled the plug' on him. He thinks I turned him over to the 'feds' and caused his downfall."

headquarters and in Charlie's Restaurant.

Scroggins' response was that "we know Brimberry is an admitted thief (he agreed to plead guilty to a tax felony charge) and it is not unexpected that he'd also be a liar, if he saw fit."

Despite the assertions in a Post-Dispatch article in December 1981, Brimberry in a telephone conversation with the Press-Record March 12, 1981, said the only reason he had become involved in the April 1981 campaign was that a pastor had asked him to back the candidate.

"I bought $500 in fund-raising tickets," Brimberry said, adding that he did not attend the fund event because he was "in Hawaii at a party."

Partney is convinced that the $500 version is the one that is correct.

He said at the time of the allegation about "thousands of dollars" changing hands that Brimberry was seeking to discredit him "because he feels I am the one who 'pulled the plug' on him. He thinks I turned him over to the 'feds' and caused his downfall."

Partney was cleared earlier in an investigation conducted by Madison County State's Attorney Don Weber.

"When the statement was made by Brimberry," the suit was filed," Partney related Friday. The allegation that unfounded statements caused the official to forfeit his public office was filed by Attorney Leon Scroggins.

Other than that the campaign gift claim was false, Partney was unable to explain why Brimberry did not send a representative to court.

Johnson certified that the defendant had full opportunity to be heard, and Brimberry has "lots of lawyers" who could have spoken out, Partney commented.

Among the federal counts that are argued in court this spring are that Brimberry lied and obstructed justice during the period after Stix collapsed and after Brimberry made an agreement to be truthful with federal investigators.

The assertion by Brimberry to a St. Louis reporter was that a large bundle of bills was handed to the candidate during the 1981 mayor campaign.

One transaction was said to have been in Brimberry's auto in January or February 1981, with other payments made in the back room of the campaign

headquarters and in Charlie's Restaurant.

Fingerprinting of children at Montessori

The Child Identification Group of Collinsville will be at the Montessori School (formerly Stallings School), 401 Highway 162, to take fingerprints of pre-school and kindergarten-age children on Tuesday, beginning at 10:30 a.m.

The purpose is to give parents a way to identify their children, should something happen to them and identification is needed. Parents keep the fingerprint cards themselves and turn them over to the local police to assist in identification at the parent's discretion. The cost is $2.50.

The group will be at the Tri-City Park Tabernacle Child Development Center, 3400 Maryville Road, to begin fingerprinting at 9 a.m., March 10.

ALLEGES MOTORIST DRIVES CARELESSLY

Alleging a motorist was spinning his tires and driving in an erratic manner at Sixth Street and Madison Avenue at 1:35 a.m. Sunday, a Madison officer followed the vehicle and halted the driver at 14th and Madison Avenue.

Lacy B. Wallace, 24, of 21st Street, was charged with driving while his license was suspended and careless driving. He also was held on an outstanding warrant issued by Granite City police, alleging failing to appear in court on a charge of trespassing.

DELINQUENCY CHARGE AGAINST LOCAL MAN

Robert R. Lewis, 20, of 2322 O'Hare Ave., was arrested at 8:50 p.m. Thursday at a Granite City residence for contributing to the delinquency of a child.

Two juveniles had been taken into custody there for questioning. The mother of a 16-year-old girl signed a complaint, saying her daughter had been truant from school repeatedly. Parents of the other girl declined to prosecute.

With Walmesley to be in charge of the combined school at 31st and Madison Ave. with an enrollment of between 2,900 and 3,000, and Dumont joining the School District Nine administrative staff based at 20th and Adams streets.

Walmesley said he was principal of North High since it was established in the fall of 1973. He spent the 1972-73 year supervising the design, building and staffing of the new schools.

The 44-year-old native of East Alton, who has a bachelor degree from SIUC and a master degree from SIUE, began his career in 1962 when he joined the Granite City District in 1963, serving as a high school industrial arts and driver education teacher.

Walmesley was a GCHS guidance counselor in 1965-67, assistant high school principal 1967-70 and principal of Prather Junior High, 1970-72.

Some of the administrative duties to be assigned to Dumont have been considered by school officials but the list is not final; further discussion is planned. Officials said the most will include broad responsibilities.

and Christopher seemed to enjoy the banter the took place. "Do you know my name," he asked one boy. "I bet you don't," he told Christopher, but a lot of people call me Father.

He revealed that, if there is not a writers' strike, shooting for the spin-off of M*A*S*H should begin in July. While he did not talk in specifics about the show which ends tonight, he did, on occasion, lapse into sentimentality. "We had a wonderful time for 11 long years."

He indicated that he enjoyed the session. "It's always nice to go among people who like M*A*S*H," he always felt the show in a friendly crowd.

Christopher was to visit two other Venture Stores in Missouri and, as the line of people in Fairview Heights showed no signs of thinning as 11 a.m. approached, the banter lessened, but his smile never diminished.

Now he's gone, but will not be forgotten. He will be one of the most-watched persons on television tonight for a M*A*S*H special which is expected to draw an even larger viewing audience than the Superbowl did, possibly a record audience. Then, of course, come the reruns.

Preparedness

Colfax in Perry County. Two others also touched down near Colfax on May 26.

A total of 14 tornadoes struck Illinois communities last May.

Although the life of a tornado is short and its destructive path can be small, while it is on the ground a tornado can cause considerable destruction of property and heavy loss of life.

The rotary winds, usually turning counter-clockwise, can vary from under 100 miles per hour to speeds exceeding 300 miles per hour and are capable of destroying solid buildings.

Tornadoes do their most destructive work through the combined action of their strong winds and flying debris, authorities say.

A tornado can make deadly missiles out of innocent objects, such as pieces of straw; it can uproot large trees and hurl people, animals and heavy machinery for hundreds of yards.

Most tornadoes move from the southeast to the northwest. They generally are funnel-shaped or rope-like clouds extending down from the base of a thunder cloud.

As it touches earth, the tornado whistles and twists, swirling debris in all directions. It is often accompanied by hail, violent thunderstorms and wind.

Its noise is so loud that it can blot out the sound of crashing buildings and falling trees.

When skies look threatening, listen to the radio, experts advise. The National Weather Service tracks all weather systems with sophisticated radar and is usually able to give adequate advance warning of violent weather conditions.

A Tornado Watch means atmospheric conditions are such that tornadoes could develop.

A Tornado Warning means an actual funnel cloud has been sighted in the general area, and the Granite City warning sirens are sounded.

No one can stop a tornado, but there are precautions one can take to safeguard lives.

When a watch is issued, listen to the broadcast advisories and be ready to take cover, emergency officials suggest.

It is wise to collect a battery-powered light and radio and have family members within earshot during the watch, they add.

Also, they say, take car keys with you. Should a tornado hit the area, the keys may save a life, but keys could be lost in the rubble.

When a tornado threatens, immediate action could save lives, it is being emphasized. Additional suggestions include:

Stay away from windows, doors and outside walls and protect your head.

In homes, take cover — go to the basement or a place in the middle of the house, like a closet, bathroom or interior hallway. Get under something sturdy.

Saturday's board meeting began at 11:30 a.m. with a public review of new school attendance zone boundaries.

An executive session was conducted on personnel, litigation and negotiations from noon to nearly 4 p.m., and then a brief public session was held in which recommendations on principals were read and adopted.

The board hopes to complete its decisions on supervisory positions in early March. Teaching staff members' honorable dismissals will be decided upon by March 22, based on reverse seniority, as spelled out by the Illinois School Code.

Tomorrow night's business is expected to include a study of the district's debt operating costs and financial outlook.

In schools — be calm and follow the directions of the teacher. Get out of and stay away from auditoriums and gymnasiums with wide, huge roofs that could collapse.

In shopping centers or very large buildings — look for a predesignated shelter. If none is available, a middle hallway as the lowest level is the next best place to take shelter.

In mobile homes or in cars — leave them and find shelter in a building. If there is no shelter nearby, lie flat in the closest ditch, ravine or culvert with hands and arms shielding the head.

If a tornado should hit, remain calm — panic never helps. Most tornadoes are short-lived, lasting only four or five minutes and traveling on the ground for two miles, on the average.

Closely inspect your property, including automobiles, for damage. Check immediately for electrical problems and gas leaks and report them to utility companies or fire departments if danger is imminent.

Heavy rains frequently follow a tornado, so secure your property from further damage or loss.

Contact your insurance company immediately if damage is extensive and take an inventory of the damage to speed up a settlement.

If you have not suffered damage, be a good neighbor and help those who need it. But do not telephone directly into or visit a disaster area. Reports will be broadcast, so let the rescue work proceed, unhampered by spectators and curiosity seekers or fire departments if danger is imminent.

Do not enter a building damaged by a tornado until you are sure it is safe and will not collapse.

Use only approved or chlorinated supplies of drinking water. Be cautious about food, as it may contain particles of glass or shivers of other debris. Discard any canned goods with broken seams.

Get food, clothing, medical care or shelter at Red Cross and Salvation Army stations, or from the Emergency Services and Disaster Agency if necessary.

Notify relatives of your safety as promptly as possible to avoid local authorities wasting valuable time trying to locate you. Limit telephone calls to one minute each and do not tie up lines if needed for emergency calls.

Cooperate in the general clean-up of debris. You are responsible for cleaning debris from your own property. During clean-up work or when making repairs, always wear shoes and gloves.

Do not sign contracts for repair work, removal of rubble or new insurance without consulting authorities.

Additional information on tornado preparedness is available free of charge by visiting the Granite City ESDD Office at police headquarters, 2330 Madison Ave., or by calling 877-3157 during weekday office hours.

Police chiefs hear program on drug-dependant officers

By DEBORAH WILLIAMS
St. Elizabeth
Medical Center

A Career Orientation Management Enrichment Training (COMET) seminar on chemical dependency problems within police forces was presented recently at St. Elizabeth Medical Center's Talbot Hall in Granite City to 40 police chiefs and sheriffs from the Southwestern Illinois Law Enforcement Commission Region.

According to Paul Smith, director of Talbot Hall, "the purpose of the seminar was to develop an awareness among police administrators concerning chemical dependency among law enforcers, how to recognize the symptoms, where to direct the officers for help for themselves and their families and what options were available to them."

St. Bennett, educational coordinator, and Rudy Sowders, Alton police chief, helped coordinate the program.

"This seminar addressed a personnel issue that can affect negatively upon a law enforcement agency's effectiveness," said Bennett. "We refer here to the law enforcement employee who is chemically dependent upon alcohol or other addictive drugs." Topics presented were "Alcoholism within the Police Force" and "The Advantages of Employee Assistance Programs," by Paul Smith; "Positive Addiction," by Steve Weeks, a chemical dependency counselor; "Legal Implications," by James E. Schempt, Alton city attorney; "The Family Impact," by Ginny Dellamano, Family Program coordinator for Talbot Hall, and Tim Yancey, a St. Louis police officer, speaking on behalf of "Policemen Helping Policemen."

SEMINAR FOR CHIEFS. Tim Yancey, an officer with the St. Louis Police Department, speaks on behalf of the group "Policemen Helping Policemen" during the Career Orientation Management Enrichment Training (COMET) seminar at St. Elizabeth Medical Center's Talbot Hall. Police chiefs and sheriffs from the Southwestern Illinois Law Enforcement Commission listen as Yancey discusses chemical dependency problems within police forces.

DeMolays compete in ritual weekend

DeMolays from James Stuart Chapter were among the 150 competing at Illinois DeMolay Ritual weekend, at Springfield. The competition was held at the Springfield Masonic Temple and they stayed at the Sheraton Inn.

Jalen Donjolan placed second as first preceptor; Ralph F. McKinney Jr., first as fifth preceptor and second as first preceptor; Neal A. Mize, first as second preceptor and second as fourth preceptor; Keith Parnell, second as seventh preceptor; Scott Pursell, second as sixth preceptor and Jimmy K. Stuart, second as fifth preceptor.

Also competing were Robert Isham, Terry Ferrin and Antonio Nunez. Other attending were, Fred Trebing and Ritual Advisor Wayne Pritchett, Chapter Advisor Charles A. Meyer and Awards Advisor Jimmy K. Stuart who is also Director of Sales & Services for Illinois DeMolay.

The Illinois Council of DeMolay Mothers Clubs met in separate session. Mary K. Stuart, president of the Illinois Council of DeMolay Mothers Club, chaired their meeting.

Also attending were Mrs. Barbara McKinney, Mrs. Charlotte Mize, Mrs. Debbie Pritchett and Mrs. Jo Meyer, historian.

Disturbances end in arrests

Police went to the home of Carolyn Garner, 20, of Washington Ave., last week in response to a call that two men were fighting outside and one man, Stacy, 17, of Kirkpatrick Homes, had eluded his assailant and run into the Garner apartment.

Jeffrey S. Perryman, 23, of 215 Washington Ave., was the other man involved and Perryman had jumped on him and then struck his head with fists.

A short time after the incident, Perryman and David A. Kuehnle, 18, Hartford, came to the Garner apartment, where Kuehnle allegedly started kicking the door while Perryman cursed and yelled, witnesses said. The door was smashed to pieces, it was reported.

Miss Garner, Filter and the men in the apartment ran out a rear door and called police. Perryman and Kuehnle had disappeared when officers arrived.

Perryman was located on the front porch at 2015 Washington Ave. and was arrested on state complaints of battery, signed by Parnell, and a disorderly conduct charge, signed by Miss Garner.

Later police went back to 2021 Washington Ave., where Kuehnle allegedly was screaming and yelling at the apartment manager. Kuehnle was arrested on a state charge of disorderly conduct.

Kuehnle was the same man involved in the incident at the Garner apartment at 4:55 p.m. and in another incident at 6:30 p.m. that day, officers allege. On both previous occasions, Kuehnle had fled prior to the officers' arrival.

In an appearance before a judge in Granite City last week, Perryman pleaded innocent to the charges and bond was set at $750 cash. He was transferred to the Madison County Jail at Edwardsville.

Kuehnle pleaded guilty and was fined $75 and was released.

EXTENSIVE DAMAGE CAUSED BY FIRE

A fire caused extensive damage last week to the kitchen area at the home of Ed Farley, 4252 Division St.

The Long Lake Fire Department was called to the scene at about 1 a.m. and the Madison County Sheriff's Department also was called. Farley, who had authorities he had been in the hospital for about a week, was the sole occupant of the residence. The fire went through the kitchen roof and investigators determined that an overheated coffee pot that was plugged in for some time caused the fire.

STEAL DOWNSPOUTS

12-1901 copper downspout drains were ripped off the north wall of Concordia Lutheran Church, 2305 Grand Ave., and were stolen. It was reported last week by Mr. Lorene Christ, a church trustee. An attempt to dialogue a third downspout by twisting it off failed, she said.

March 14 is voter registration deadline

Deputies from the Madison County Clerk's office will be at the following locations to register voters before the April 12 general election:

Granite City: Granite City Trust & Savings Bank, 4 to 7 p.m. March 4; Kroger Food Store in Nameoki Village, noon to 7 p.m. March 11; Green's Confectionery, 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. March 5; City Clerk's office, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., Monday through Friday.

Madison: City Hall, noon to 7 p.m. March 14.

Nameoki: Clerk Donald L. Ridgeway in the supervisor's office, 4250 Highway 162, by appointment.

Pontiac: Beach: A & J Market, 468 Pontiac Road, 10 a.m. to 5 p.m., Feb. 28.

Venice: Eagle Park Improvement Association, 10 a.m. to 2 p.m., March 5; Bob's Bi-Rite Grocery, 10 a.m. to 5 p.m., March 5.

Madison man faces two traffic charges

A Madison man was arrested last week and charged with driving under the influence (DUI) of intoxicating liquor and making an improper turn at an intersection after his vehicle allegedly almost struck two parked cars.

George Eugene French, 46, of 2233 Grand Ave., was arrested after a Madison police officer said he noticed headlights in his rearview mirror as he was driving northbound on McCambridge Avenue, approaching Skeen Street and saw the vehicle pass him on the right and then turn onto Rhodes Street from the left lane.

The officer reported that he turned on his squad car's red lights in the 1900 block of Rhodes Street and observed the vehicle travel slowly to the right and almost strike a parked car. French's auto then allegedly rolled through a stop sign at Rhodes Street and McNair Avenue and again swerved to the right, almost hitting another parked car.

The vehicle was stopped at Edwardsville Road and McCambridge Avenue and French was arrested.

ALLEGED DAMAGE AT CAFE

Jerome D. Johnson, 24, of 2425 Lincoln Ave., was charged with criminal damage to property, following an incident at the 19th Hole Tavern, 2401 Washington Ave. last week.

Officers arrived at 24th Street and Washington Avenue to find several people holding Johnson. Johnson had been asked to leave the tavern and allegedly broke a window near the front door upon departing. A complaint was signed by Phil Vaughn, owner.

Johnson was released upon posting a $102 cash bond.

Charge man with assault

Harold Marvin Wright, 23, of 28 Garesche Homes, Madison, was charged with assault following an incident in the 1000 block of Douglas Street, Venice, last week.

Shirley Green, 405 Weaver Ave., Venice, who was staying temporarily at a relative's home, alleged that Wright came into a nearby yard, threatened her and another woman and pulled a pistol from his pocket.

When Mrs. Green called police, Wright left the vicinity and was taken into custody at Garrett's Tavern, 397 Weaver St., Venice. No weapon was found in his possession at the time of his arrest, police noted.

Wright was released after posting a $52 cash bond.

South students to be tested

Granite City High School South has been selected by the Illinois Office of Education to participate in the Inventory of Educational Progress, which has been conducted annually since 1976. This is a systematic effort by the state to collect information on the achievement of Illinois students in certain areas and to make that information available to educational decision-makers.

Twenty-seven juniors who have been randomly selected from South will be given a three-hour test consisting of essay writing, language arts, reading and mathematics. They also will be asked to complete two student questionnaires. Mrs. Sonya Adkerson, coordinator of Pupil Personnel Services, will administer the IIEP on March 14 and 15.

Since the IIEP is geared toward determining how groups of Illinois students perform on given tasks, no individual teacher, school or district will be identified in any reports of the results.

4 give back items taken from school

Four students at Madison High School apparently took items from Carlinville High School during an athletic event there.

Acting on information from the Jersey County Sheriff's Department, Madison police went to the home of a juvenile, who then took the police to three other homes of juveniles where items were retrieved last week.

None of the four denied stealing the items, police said. All four of them readily handed over various items, including two jackets and tennis shoes. Two jerseys still have not been recovered.

Madison High School principal Don Kostelnik was notified and the school has taken action, the report said. Prosecution of the four still is a consideration among Carlinville High School officials.

If you're hotter than your furnace about eating bills...

Cut them down to a happier size with an electric room heater.

Keeping empty rooms toasty warm is like letting a car idle overnight in the driveway—waste, waste, waste.

If you turn down the central heating thermostat to 65 or 60 degrees—at least for a good portion of the day and night—you can use a portable electric heater to warm the room you're in to a comfortable degree.

When you do dial down, dress warmly for both your comfort and health.

No fumes

Electric heaters, of course, require no venting, produce no noxious fumes, do not dry the air, create no mess and require very little, if any, maintenance. So you not only feel comfortable with electric heat—you feel comfortable about using it.

Many Kinds to Choose From

Electric heaters come in a wide variety of types, styles, capacities and prices. Virtually all have thermostats so they cycle off and on automatically. Some have blowers; some heat by natural convection—turning the cold air at outside walls into gentle warmth. Some can be carried around and placed anywhere in the room. Others may be permanently installed. Check the various features to find the best one for your needs.

Other Comfort Suggestions

A sound way to heat basement rooms, room additions, enclosed porches, attics or hard-to-heat areas, is to install electric heaters. In fact, the advantage of individual room temperature control makes electric heaters an excellent choice for more than one room of your home.

Electricity Cost Less In Winter

Electricity is cheaper in the winter than it is in the summer. If your winter months' electric bills average about $54—the additional cost of operating a 1,500 watt electric heater will be about 6 cents for every hour it operates. And that's less than the cost of heating any other way.

You can use an electric heater to increase your comfort and lower your costs.

Savings, loan deposits rise

Deposit balances at Illinois savings and loan associations increased by the second largest amount in the history of the business during December 1982. The Illinois Savings and Loan League attributed the record rise to a heavy influx of savings into newly authorized money market deposit accounts. The largest net increase in deposits occurred in March 1979.

The net deposit increase in December was $609 million compared to $644 million in March 1979. The December rise brought total savings outstanding at year-end to $40.9 billion or 3.3 percent higher than one year earlier.

December interest additions brought total interest and dividends credited to accounts during the year to a record $3.4 billion.

Loans closed. Illinois associations totaled $167 million, an 18 percent increase over the November volume. During the year, associations closed $1.8 billion in loans, helping 33,000 Illinois families buy homes.

Construction outlays were $158 million during the year or 9 percent of the total closed. Loans closed for purchase of completed properties were $1.3 billion, less than 1 percent of the total loan volume.

Land loans, refinancings and loans closed for all other purposes totaled $45 million, $229 million and $111 million, respectively.

Among the five categories, refinancings had the largest percentage month-to-month increase.

Secondary mortgage market activity proceeded at a brisk pace in 1982. December loan sales were $833 million, a record for the month. The yearly sales volume totaled an all-time high of $3.4 billion, 74 percent higher than the previous high in 1979.

Total purchases for the year were $1.5 billion. Illinois associations were net sellers of $1.9 billion. On a yearly basis, this is the first time Illinois associations have been net sellers of mortgages.

Traditionally, Illinois has been a net purchaser of loans because in the past it has been a capital surplus state. However, many of the sales which took place in 1982 were actually exchanges for mortgage-backed securities.

New backing for sobriety tests

One study indicates that of the Madison County motorists refusing sobriety tests, about 80 percent have escaped loss of driving privileges. With this in mind, it seems appropriate that the U.S. Supreme Court has just upheld a key part of Illinois' 1981 drunk driving law.

The justices ruled Feb. 22 that refusal to take a breath test—when one's driving performance has been challenged by police—can be used as evidence of guilt. As Justice Sandra D. O'Connor wrote, "The situation underlying this case... occurs with tragic frequency on our nation's highways. The carnage caused by drunk drivers is well-documented (about 25,000 deaths yearly)."

The 7-2 decision said it does not violate one's constitutional right against self-incrimination to have a test refusal utilized as evidence in court. The high court earlier had held that states could force drunken driving suspects to take tests that measure alcohol of drug levels in the blood, the opinion noted.

Secretary of State Jim Edgar commented Thursday,

"We're hopeful this will help get people to take the breathalyzer test." He recalled that since the law was revised by the General Assembly, no court in Illinois had ruled on this provision. It was expected to be challenged at some point, but now the U.S. Supreme Court action has ended the prospect of any legal controversy.

The 1981 state law also doubled the penalty for refusing to take a sobriety test, from a three-month to a six-month suspension of a driver's license.

The crackdown obviously has been of some success already. "Driving under the influence" convictions rose by 45 percent in 1982, and Illinois highway fatalities declined by 11 percent.

But uncertainty about the law's validity continued throughout the past year and a large number of persons "thumbed their noses" at the test without incurring much of a penalty. That is likely to stop immediately, leading to an even greater degree of traffic safety in the future.

No Taj Mahal for state police

Illinois State Police moved their District 11 headquarters last week from a mine-endangered building on Illinois Route 159 in Maryville to 101 W. Main St. in Collinsville. The previous headquarters, built in 1963, has been experiencing structural damage because the earth under it has been settling into abandoned coal mine shafts.

The move makes sense and we question its "temporary" nature, even though the interim period is likely to be at least several years.

Replacement with an entirely new structure hinges on approval and financing by the state legislature, which obviously could devote funds to far better purposes in this recession-plagued year.

The 100-foot communications tower already has been removed from Maryville and rebuilt, in 1981, on the campus of Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, a tall and relatively central site.

The Illinois Department of Law Enforcement estimates it would cost $1,800,000 at today's prices to construct a 5,800-square-foot building similar to the one at Maryville.

Without underestimating the importance of the district's function, which utilizes 80 troopers and 35 civilian employees in nine counties, $1,800,000 seems like a mighty big price tag for taxpayers to underwrite. Only about 20 persons are at the central offices on a daily basis. And even if this number grows, a Taj Mahal expenditure ought to be avoided.

The present headquarters in Collinsville may prove to be more than adequate and, if not, there are many quality buildings—closed schools, stores, businesses and other facilities—available in Madison County.

TV eye winks at one of duties

Many area residents are right in being upset over this metropolitan area's television "blackout" of the 1983 State of the State address. The Illinois governor outlined many proposals that night, including tax increases.

The meeting was made available live from 6:30 to 7 p.m. at the Illinois State Capitol in Springfield. The manner in which the points were voted—and the atmosphere in which they were heard by a crowded chamber of legislators, jurists, state officials and administrators—undoubtedly added much to the understanding of the message for citizens who had an opportunity to view the telecast.

Although the 6:30-7 time frame is supposed to emphasize "local programming," no commercial or education television stations here broadcast the talk; cable officials were willing but could not achieve a link with a cable station that was carrying the speech. One local radio station did air it—WSIE, based at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville.

The failure by Channel Nine was particularly disappointing. It presents viewers with seemingly interminable fund-raising pitches several times a year, but in return it did not deliver for the public in this case. Quad-City groups have been in the forefront of those volunteering their time to help answer telephones during the educational and public service TV station's financial drives. But no Quad-Cityman was given a chance to see the governor discuss possible 60 percent state income tax revisions.

It is true that Missourians outnumber Illinoisans in this metropolitan region but Madison and St. Clair counties rank third and fourth in size among the nine bi-state geographic units in terms of economic activity. And there are numerous instances of persons working in one state and residing in the other; it can be accurately said that nearly one million persons were directly affected.

There was an obvious need for this state's once-a-year governmental presentation to be shown on one of the channels "serving" the many Illinois counties which receive TV signals from St. Louis. But it did not happen.

Madison Countyans deserve better treatment than this. Just how real is the various stations' professed "commitment" to Illinois needs?

Offers congratulations to Reliable Nesco

To the Editor:

Congratulations to the Reliable Nesco steel barrel industry and of monumental significance. It shows that "cooperation" is the key word to success in any business. The Japanese world favorite slogan is "The nail that sticks out, gets hammered down," meaning everyone is equal no one individual does it. If one man would have failed to do his job on Feb. 15, when the world record was set, the goal would never have been accomplished. The Nesco men had the desire and cooperation to turn this plant around, in addition to taking almost a 15 percent cut in pay to save this 75-year-old plant from bankruptcy. It is a shining example to other plants and industries that it "can be done." Perhaps when the Andrew Sisters came out with their famous song, "Roll Out the Barrel," they had in mind Reliable Nesco.

Student drug seminar here

Operation Snowball, a seminar on teen alcoholism and drug abuse, will be conducted in the Quad-City area in late April. Darryl E. Calmesse, a prevention specialist with Piasa Health Care, said high school aged youths from different areas of Madison County will attend.

He related that "Operation Snowball is an educational, experimental prevention program designed to provide teens with accurate information about alcohol and drug abuse and a variety of other adolescent concerns."

"This teenage, peer to peer effort is founded on the belief that every person has the capacity to make sound decisions regarding life and behavior, based on adequate information and an understanding of one's self, attitudes and motivations and to exert and control."

"The process is designed to promote the personal and growth of the individual before the onset of identifiable problem patterns and to establish adequate knowledge, positive attitudes, constructive behavior, positive alternatives and social norms less likely to lead to destructive patterns of conduct."

"Operation Snowball is a primary prevention program and does not provide treatment for individuals or groups."

"It was founded in the fall of 1977 by a group of teenagers who had attended the Illinois Teenage Institute that summer."

"When the teens returned to northwestern Illinois, they felt a need to do something for other youths in their community. They enlisted aid from adults, some of whom were involved in the local chapter of the Illinois Alcoholism and Drug Dependency Association."

"They began to recruit other area teenagers who attended the institute and, as a group, decided to bring the same experience to other teenagers."

"They adopted the title of operation snowball because they wanted the ideals of 'natural high' alternatives to drug and alcohol abuse, responsible decisions about their own behavior, positive peer influence and outreach to the community to snowball—rather than have them remain within the small group which had shared a life-enhancing experience."

"Operation Snowball derived its name from the theory that 'if I have a positive impact on you, you can have it on someone else—the effect snowballs.'"

"This youth-initiated grassroots endeavor serves as an inspiration for youths and adults in other parts of the state. Thus Operation Snowball is a community of caring, began."

"Operation Snowball overflows into the home. Sudden, previously uncommunicative teens are part of the home. They talk positively, expressing themselves eloquently."

"One participant summed up by saying, 'It was the best experience of my life. I learned about the person inside the face I see everyday in the mirror.'"

Prior to the planned one-day program here, there will be a Region JV Operation Snowball weekend April 8-10 at Camp Sallateeska, Pickneyville.

March tour by job team

Lieutenant Governor George Ryan will head a new job development team designed to reduce unemployment and other job-related problems in Illinois' most economically depressed areas.

The team will visit Decatur, March 4, Rockford, March 8, Kankakee, March 11, Moline, March 16, Peoria, March 22 and East St. Louis, March 24.

"With his background in business, Lt. Gov. Ryan is well-qualified to direct this team in hard-hit cities and determine what the state can do to help," Governor James R. Thompson said.

"George Ryan has the authority to work with executive departments in state government, giving him tools to coordinate the state's efforts and work to improve employment."

Thompson said one of Ryan's primary roles will be to work as a catalyst in helping local officials solve economic problems in their areas.

"I've seen cases in which labor and management wouldn't even sit down in the same room," Ryan said. "But through work with both sides, they eventually got together and made progress. This is one of the goals I hope to achieve."

The governor has asked that Department of Commerce and Community Affairs Director Peter B. Fox, Tom Marsch, the governor's assistant in economic development issues, and Doug Keller, Ryan's economic development aide, work with Ryan on the project.

Dr. Michaeloff attends workshop

Dr. Goni Michaeloff, chairman of the speech department at Granite City High School North, attended a seminar workshop entitled "The Vibe has it: Communication for the administrator."

The workshop was attended by Illinois women administrators from the Region III area, which encompasses 30 counties in the west central portion of the state.

Dr. Michaeloff discussed the types of communication involved in writing, speaking and listening skills essential in management as used by the school administrator.

Conference to explore Illinois school 'crisis'

The third annual public-nonpublic school administrators conference, co-sponsored by the Illinois State Board of Education (ISBE) and the Illinois Advisory Committee on Nonpublic Schools, will begin at 9:30 a.m. March 3 and 4 at the American Congress Hotel in Chicago.

Senate Pres. Philip Rock is scheduled to speak at a banquet at 6:30 p.m. March 3 and State Budget Director Robert Manderville will make his presentation on the "Outlook for Financing Education in the '80s" at 1:45 p.m. that day.

The conference will include presentations by James Coleman, chief investigator for the Public and Private Schools Report (the Coleman Report), and Michael Kirst, a nationally known expert and author on school finance and on politics in education.

At 9 a.m. March 4, they will discuss "High School and Beyond," a longitudinal study conducted by the National Center for Education Statistics. The Coleman Report was one portion of the High School and Beyond study.

Coleman is a sociology professor at the University of Chicago, a professor of education at Stanford University and a past president of the California State Board of Education.

Other speakers will include R. Bruce McPherson, professor of education at the University of Illinois at Chicago; Milton Goldberg, executive director of the National Commission on Excellence in Education; and John Van Doren, editor of The Great Ideas Today and a member of the Paideia Group, producers of The Paideia Proposal.

More than 500 public and nonpublic school educators are expected to participate in the conference, which will also provide small group sessions featuring State Board members, staff members from ISBE and public and nonpublic schools, as well as representatives of education associations and parent groups from the education community.

The group sessions will address a variety of topics, including education mandates; the "crisis" in math, science and foreign language education; the "microchip" in education; and the State Education Board's relationship to nonpublic schools.

NEGLIGENCE SUIT INVOLVES INFANT

Beverly Lehman, acting as special administrator for the estate of Stacey Lehman, who died in an automobile accident Dec. 31, 1979, has filed suit against St. Elizabeth Medical Center, in Madison County Circuit Court.

The suit alleges that Stacey, who was born in June of 1978, was treated at SEMC on Jan. 19, 1979.

The plaintiff alleges in the two-count suit that the child fell from her bed at SEMC because personnel there lowered a crib wall to administer treatment and then failed to raise the wall.

The child received injuries to her head and skull and developed an epileptic condition, requiring care and treatment until her death, the suit alleges.

Circuit Judge Horace Calvo has been assigned to the case.

QUEEN CANDIDATE

Lynda Loftus, 2160 Down, Granite City. She is one of 30 contestants in the annual Miss UNA Pageant scheduled for Norton Auditorium on the University of North Alabama campus, Florence, Ala., Friday, March 4, at 7:30 p.m. The winner will compete for the title of Miss Alabama in a Birmingham pageant in early summer. Four UNA coeds, three in succession in recent years, have won the Miss Alabama title. Cheryl Pruitt, 1980 Miss America, will host the pageant at Florence.

Van break-in; question youth

After someone called Eddie's Lounge, 2800 Nameoki Road, and told Vernon Ryan, 2222 Alexander Ave., that a thief was breaking into his van last week, Ryan went outside and saw someone jump over a fence behind a dwelling in the 2800 block of Myrtle Avenue.

Ryan caught a youth in the back yard of a nearby residence and released him after the youth said he lived at that address. The address information later proved to be false.

A rear door window had been broken in the van. A large drill and two boxes containing assorted tools were taken.

The toolboxes were recovered near where the youth was first seen, but the drill was not found.

A caller gave the name of a youth believed to be responsible, but that suspect was not identified as the one who fled from the tavern parking lot.

SEMC CHARGED IN NEGLIGENCE SUIT

Estelle Palmer, acting as administrator of the estate of Steve Palmer, who died Oct. 28, 1980, has filed suit in Madison County Circuit Court against St. Elizabeth Medical Center.

Mr. Palmer was being treated for cancer at SEMC when he fell from bed. The suit alleges that the medical center staff did not provide adequate supervision.

The suit says that he released himself from restraints and fell from the bed, breaking his right hip, which later required several operations.

ALLEGES BATTERY

A family argument last week resulted in the arrest of Clint D. Merchant, 21, of 1151 (rear) Rhodes St., who was charged with battery on a complaint signed by his wife, Linda. Mrs. Merchant reported being struck and her face was marked, an officer said. Clint Merchant was released after posting a $102 cash bond.

Awards presented at Cub Pack 14 banquet

The annual Blue and Gold Banquet for Cub Scout 14, sponsored by Nameoki School, was held last week in the school cafeteria, with recognition accorded to leaders and scouts.

"Scouting Around the World" was the theme of the event. Patrick Breese, cubmaster, welcomed scouts, adult leaders and their families, followed by a song performed by members of Den Five. The Rev. Charles Sackett gave the invocation. Special guests included Joe Gosney, district executive, Mr. and Mrs. Don Kopp, school principal and his wife, Karen Jones, Nameoki PTA president, and Randy Smith, Pack 46 scout commissioner.

Advancement awards were presented by Pat Pearson and recognition of leaders was by the cubmaster. Dens and Den leaders honored were, Jeanie Ferguson, Den One; Judy Simon and June Branding, Den Four; Donna Schmid, Den Three; Larry Thomas and Carolyn Smith, Webelos; Pat Pearson and Maggie Clark, Den Five.

Also, Larry Thomas, assistant cubmaster, Cindy Breese, secretary, Pearson, advancement chairman, John Stone, treasurer, Carolyn Smith and Bea Stevenson, den leader coaches. Special awards also went to Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Stevenson, the latter was chairman of the banquet.

Awards earned in a summer olympics, designed as a physical fitness competition, in standing long jump, softball throw, push-ups, set-ups and the 60-yard dash, were presented during the evening.

In the 8-year old category Larry Curry took first, Adam Meyenburg and Sean Patterson, placed second and third; 9-year olds, Brad O'Neill, first, Nathan McClain, second, Richard Stagg, third; 10-year olds, Steven Smith, first, Allen Williams, second and Eric Stone, third.

Pinewood derby winners included, 8-year division, Scott Simon, first, Nathan Branding, second and Bobby Gaddy, third; 9-year old group, Robbie Nolen, first, Brad O'Neill, second and Brian Henry, third; 10-year olds, Stephen Breese, first, Jeff Thomas, second and Allen Williams, third. Scott Simon also received an award as the leader of the pack in the contest.

TRAFFIC ARREST, SERVE WARRANTS

Jerry Wayne Johnson, 25, of 34 Grenzer Homes, Madison, was arrested last week at Seventh Street and Washington Avenue, Madison on a charge of driving while his license was suspended.

Two warrants, alleging not having a valid registration, also were outstanding from the Madison and Venice police departments and were served on Johnson.

Air Force seeks re-enlistees

The Air Force needs more than 2,000 people with prior military service before Sept. 30, 1983, according to Technical Sgt. Tom Slater, Air Force Recruiter at 3675 Nameoki Road.

"Critically needed by the Air Force are former servicemen trained in aircraft maintenance, systems, avionics, weapons and munitions specialties, along with intelligence, computer programming and site development specialist," Slater said. Recruiters may offer these critically-needed specialists their former rank back if they have not been out of the service more than two years, and are otherwise qualified.

"Prior-service people interested in joining the Air Force should call Sgt. Slater at 876-5225 to determine if their specialty is still on the critical skills list."

Gary Humphrey and Mary Ferguson

Humphrey-Ferguson

The engagement of Miss Mary M. Ferguson, daughter of Raymond E. Ferguson, 29 Lakewood Court, Collinsville, formerly of Granite City, and the late Mrs. Gerrie Ferguson, and Gary A. Humphrey, is being announced by the bride-elect's father.

Parents of the prospective groom, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Marie Humphrey, reside at 211 Merrell Ave., Collinsville.

A 1980 graduate of Collinsville High School, Miss Ferguson is enrolled as a junior student at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, where she is majoring in music. She is employed on part-time basis at National Food Store and is a piano and organ instructor at Ludvig Music.

Miss Ferguson is a past queen of Bethel 42, Order of Job's Daughters in Collinsville, a member of St. John United Church of Christ Chancel Choir, a member of the dance band, "Elysium," and is director of the Cherub Choir of St. John Church.

Her fiancé is employed in sales at Ludwig Aeolian Music Stores, St. Clair Square, Fairview Heights, and is a 1973 graduate of Collinsville High School. He also graduated in 1978 from Bradley University with a Bachelor of Science Degree in Music Business. A member of the "Starlighters" dance band, he also holds membership in St. John UCC Chancel Choir and is chairman of music committee there.

A May 21 wedding to take place at St. John Evangelical United Church of Christ in Collinsville, is being planned by the betrothed couple.

French rose
The American Beauty rose is not American at all. It's French and was first called the Madame Ferdinand Jamin rose.

Mrs. Betty Nighohosian, service chairman, for Granite City Junior Service Club, announced eye glasses were purchased for two school children and a $50 knee brace was provided for another child, during a monthly club meeting held last week at the Nameoki United Presbyterian Church.

Mrs. Gail Mlotzky, president, conducted the session as members also agreed to donate $100 to a needy family as the club's Easter project.

The club will host its annual Easter egg hunt for children of the members on March 26 at Wilson Park and will hold a wine and cheese party for prospective members on March 21.

Tentative arrangements were discussed for a couples night out in May and installation of new officers in April at Ravnelli's Restaurant.

As a fund raising project, the group prepared and delivered 367 pizzas a Saturday.

The annual mother and daughter banquet will be held on May 5 with final plans to be announced later, according to the president.

Refreshments were served after the business segment to Rose Ann Bates, Joyce Curran, Wilma Edgington, Linda Gordon, Joella Harris, Faith Holsinger, Flora Mae Lensing, Donna McBride, Gale McFarland, Debbie McMillen, Kathy Mitchell, Donna Sprankle, Paula Weaver, Brenda Weckman and a guest, Jeanne Wilbur.

SHIP RETURNS FROM W. GERMANY

DAR honors five students for good citizenship

Five area high school students were honored for their good citizenship qualities at the Brasilia Andrews Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution's annual Good Citizens' Tea.

The senior student selections were based on their displays of leadership, dependability, service and patriotism. Those honored were Tamara Taylor of Granite City High School North; Dawn Thier of Metro-East Lutheran High School; Neal Mize of Venice High School, and Cheryl Thomason of Granite City High School South.

Janet Wilson, Good

Citizens Committee chairman, gave a brief history of the DAR citizen awards, begun in 1934. She then presented each student with a pin and certificate.

Miss Taylor is the daughter of Doris and Bobby Taylor, 3 Victoria Drive, Pontoon Beach. At North, she received a United States Mathematics Achievement Award. She also has been recognized in "Who's Who of American High School Students."

Miss Taylor is a member of the National Honor Society, president of the high school band and secretary of the Social Studies Club.

Miss Thomason, a daughter of Joyce and Franklin Thomason, 2019 Lee Ave., currently is Granite City's Junior Miss. Women's Division honors Dr. Koch

HONORED. Dr. Felicia Koch the founder and first president of the Women's Division of the Tri-Cities Area Chamber of Commerce. She was presented with a floral arrangement at a dinner meeting of the organization marking her 75th birthday and first officer of the group, by President Mary Jessee and Shirley Adams, chairwoman of the event.

The Women's Division of the Tri-Cities Chamber of Commerce, accorded special honor to Dr. Felicia Koch at a dinner meeting held at Buck and Jan's Den, last week.

President Mrs. Mary Jessee and Chairman Shirley Adams introduced Dr. Koch, who celebrated her 75th birthday and as the founder of the Women's Division they presented her with a floral arrangement by Silk Occasions. Dr. Koch also was the first president of the organization having served in that office from 1969 to 1970.

A representative of Silk Occasions provided the program for the evening with a demonstration of dried and silk floral arrangements. Entertainment was selections by "Starburst" a quartet from Sweet Adelines singing group.

Mrs. Jessee gave the welcoming address before the dinner, which was attended by 50 members.

A Valentine motif decorated the hall and tables and were encircled with white candelabra encircled with red roses. A long stien red rose marked each appointment featuring white place mats and napkins. In keeping with the theme, Valentines were exchanged during the social hour.

More the Merrier holds potluck

The More the Merrier Senior Citizen Club members attended a potluck dinner on Thursday at the Granite City Township Hall.

President Juanita Crawley led the group in repeating the Lord's Prayer and pledge of allegiance. She also noted that the Granite City Senior Citizen Council will host a dance on April 14 from 6 to 9 p.m. at the township hall.

Games were played during the afternoon and winners for the day were Effie Johnson, Marguerite Collins, Carmen Toth, Elizabeth Malincheff, Marie Toth, Evelyn Smith, Ann Austin, Lucille Pierce, Earl Marti and Martin Schulte.

Auxiliary plans benefit

At the semi-monthly meeting presided over by president, Vernie Von Nida, the Eagles Auxiliary made plans for a benefit barbeque to be held on April 23 at the Eagles Aerie Home, 2600 Madison Ave. The benefits will go to State and Charles Proctor of Heart Fund, Cancer, Jimmie Durante Childrens Fund, Golden Eagle and State Project. The public will be invited to attend, she added.

Minutes of the previous meeting were read by the secretary, Helen Frazier, and approved.

A report was given on the Eighth District meeting held in Aton the past weekend attended by 26 local members, 14 of which were new candidates. There were 98 members from various auxiliaries in attendance. Mrs. Von Nida introduced new members that were initiated at that meeting.

Balloting on applications of Mary Matosian, Yvonne Gray, Violet Jorgensen and Sherry Landa was held and they were elected. Plans were discussed on having the hobo dance in April at the Eagles Home.

The secretary read communications in reference to the State Auxiliary Convention to be held in Chicago, June 9 through 12. Applications for motel reservations, the banquet and the prayer breakfast were received.

It was announced that the Aerie Officers Breakfast will be on March 13 at 9 a.m. at the Eagles Home, and all officers and members are invited.

Refreshments were served after the meeting at a table decorated in honor of George Washington's Birthday with a centerpiece of flags and red and white napkins. The lunch served was all in the red and white theme, and the hostesses for the evening were Leona Delaloye, Ann Konopka and Helen Lipchik.

The attendance prize was won by Joan Sutton and the white elephant prize by Eileen Rickert.

GCHS North second in engineering contest

Red Bud High School placed first for Class A schools and Belleville Township High School East placed first for Class AA schools in the Junior Engineering Technical Society TEAMS district competition, sponsored by JETS in conjunction with Belleville Area College. Granite City High School North was second among the AA schools.

Red Bud advanced through regional and state competition to place first at the national level for the past two years. Belleville East placed first at the district level of competition last year.

Gibault High School and Chester High School placed second and third, respectively, for Class A schools. In Class AA competition, behind North was Mascoutah High School, third.

About 250 students from 30 area high schools took part in the competition composed of six individual tests covering math, chemistry, engineering, physics, engineering graphics and biology. Each high school in the district enters up to 12 students on a team, up to four students taking a test in each of the subject areas.

The winning teams in each class and the top individual winner in each category advance to regional competition. Winners at the regional level advance to a state competition, followed by a national ranking.

Neale Fadden, BAC math instructor, was chairman for last week's contest.

Open House at Madison Fire Department

The public is being invited to tour the Madison Fire Department during open house hours Saturday and Sunday, March 5 and 6, from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m., according to Fire Chief Mike Mack.

He said the public is being invited to visit the facility, which has been renovated, painted and repaired during recent months. The new ambulance, fully equipped with medical supplies and radio, also will be on display, he added.

The mayor and aldermen have been invited to a preview tour of the council meeting on Tuesday.

DRUG ALLEGATION
Granite City police and the Metropolitan Enforcement Group of Southwestern Illinois arrested Rory D. Bpnd was set at $7,500 and he was transferred at 4 p.m. Thursday to St. Clair County custody.

Conviction of Davis is upheld

The Illinois Supreme Court has upheld the murder conviction of Givies Davis in the 1978 death of 89-year-old Charles Biebel of Belleville. The court last week ordered that Davis, 25, of East St. Louis, be electrocuted May 24, but the execution is expected to be delayed pending further appeals.

Davis has been convicted in a series of murders, including the 1978 death of Esther Sepmeyer of rural Maryville. That conviction has not yet been reviewed by the Illinois Supreme Court.

Madison keeps tradition alive; downs Lovejoy

By ROGER KRAMER
of the Press-Record

DUPLO — Madison basketball coach Larry Graham asked Victor Valentine, one of the Trojans' starting guards, whether winning the regional tournament was becoming a school tradition.

Valentine was just walking in Graham's range when he asked the question, so Valentine answered, "Yeah."

Graham asked again, "Is winning the regional a school tradition?" Again, Valentine said, "Yeah."

"Is winning the regional a school tradition?" Graham asked again. "Yes, winning the regional is a school tradition at Madison," Valentine said. Madison, wanting to keep the tradition going in 1983, picked away Lovejoy 63-57 and won its eighth straight regional title at the Dupo Class A Regional Tournament Friday. The last time Madison lost the regional was in 1975, the year Venice won the Class A state championship.

The Trojans, 23-4 for the season, will play Bunker Hill at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday in the first round of the Vandalia Class A Sectional Tournament. The winner will meet either Vandalia or Wescinn (Trenton) Friday in the sectional championship, also at 7:30 p.m.

Understandably, Lovejoy coach Ted Daniels was bitter about the loss. The Wildcats had much better individuals than Madison despite their 16-6 record, and Daniels knew it.

"We think the better team didn't finish on top, but Madison had a lot more desire than we did," Daniels said. Of course, Lovejoy had 6-foot-11 Barry Sumpter, and high-scoring guard Von Miller and Darryl Foster. The Trojans knew those three were probably better players than they were.

"We were told by a lot of people that we're weren't supposed to beat Lovejoy," Madison center-forward Terry Hamilton said. "We're really not as good as a lot of the teams we've played, but we were able to play as a team better than they did."

It was a complete team effort which put the Wildcats away. Hamilton, Keith Wyatt and Leroy Pryor shared the duties of double-teaming Sumpter. Sumpter, who scored 27 points against Venice the night before, scored only 16 points against the Trojans.

"Boy, was it tough trying to stop Sumpter," Hamilton said. "We put one man in front and one man in back of him because the coaches figure we would be able to get a few steals here and there, but it was the play of our guards which won the game for us."

Valentine, John Hughes and Michael Young were the Madison guards who had the responsibility of holding Miller and Foster in line. Foster ended up with 17 points and Miller ended up with 13, but the trio helped to force Lovejoy into 20 turnovers.

"It was definitely a team effort," Valentine said. "They're tough guards, so sometimes we put a lot of pressure on them all the way down the court and sometimes we got back and forced them to shoot from outside."

The Trojans were effective at both defensive strategies the entire game. Lovejoy only scored four points in the last five minutes of the second quarter, but Madison could only take a 27-24 lead at halftime.

However, they set the stage for the decisive third quarter. Sumpter picked up three fouls in the first half. "He's a great player. Our kids did a great job of maneuvering inside, and he had to go after us," Graham said.

Sumpter, who only blocked two shots against the Trojans, picked up his fourth foul of the game with 4:58 to go in the game. Daniels was displeased with the fouls.

"The turning point of the game was when the first whistle was blown. I knew it would be a tightly called game and it went in Madison's favor," Daniels said.

With Sumpter out of the line-up, Hamilton and Pryor both found their jobs much easier. Both scored four points in the 3½ minutes he was gone, and Madison took a 47-35 lead.

Daniels, seeing the game would be a lost cause if Sumpter didn't return soon, put him back in the game with 1:13 left. Sumpter cut the margin to 10 by the end of the quarter.

Lovejoy cut the margin to five in the fourth quarter. With the score 57-52 after Walter Simms scored at 2:17, Madison spread out the offense, and Lovejoy had to foul to get the ball back.

Lovejoy fouled Hughes, Valentine and Young, the Trojans' top free throw shooters. "I looked over at Coach (Dave) Hodges and told him that's the best thing that could happen to us," Graham said.

It wasn't. Madison only made seven of 14 free throws in the span, giving the Wildcats a chance to come back. However, Foster fouled out of the game with 1:07 left. Lovejoy made four turnovers in the span, and made only three of 11 shots from the field.

"If we would have made our free throws, we could have won by 15," Valentine. "We'll take any victory any way we can get it."

Balanced scoring from Madison's outside shooters capped the game. Hughes led all the Trojans with 16, Pryor had 14, Young scored 12, and Valentine added 11.

"We've had some teams more talented than this win the regionals, but this team really works well together, and that's why they're in the sectionals," Graham said.

Trojans to meet Bunker Hill in opening round

By ROGER KRAMER
of the Press-Record

VANDALIA — Madison basketball coach Larry Graham is worried. He's worried that the Trojans may not be mentally ready for Bunker Hill when the two teams meet Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. at the Vandalia Class A Sectional Tournament.

"I kind of wish we weren't playing Bunker Hill the first game," Graham said. "We always have to beat tough teams like Venice or Lovejoy in the regional, and because we were excited about beating them, we're down for the first game of the sectional."

"Bunker Hill's a good team this year. We've got to be ready to play them. We have to sit and talk about how good they are. I would rather be playing Vandalia or (Trenton) Wescinn the first round," Graham said.

Bunker Hill isn't a team that can be taken lightly. The Minutemen are 23-0 this year, one of only two undefeated Class A teams in the state this year.

On Tuesday, Vandalia plays Wescinn at 7:30 p.m. The two winners meet Friday in the sectional championship, and the champion plays the winner of the Bridgeport (Red Hill) sectional.

Lawrenceville, 29-0 and the only other undefeated Class A team, is favored to come out of that sectional.

Many parallels can be made between the two teams. Both have highly successful coaches. Graham has led Madison to two state championships while Minutemen coach Jim Hlaflak has won over 400 games at Bunker Hill.

Both teams are quick and have aggressive defenses. Both teams have excellent jumping ability and know how to move in for rebounds. Both teams have good depth they can rely on in difficult situations.

Graham and Hlaflak agree that the inside game will determine the outcome of the game. Madison's inside game, Terry Hamilton, Leroy Pryor and reserve Keith Wyatt will have to contend with Bunker Hill's inside men, Gant Harper, Wally Kormick and reserve Mark Ramsey.

"They're not like Lovejoy, who throw the ball to Sumpter and turn around for a shot. Bunker Hill drives at the basket, and we're going to have to stop their inside game," Graham said.

Hlaflak said, "They've got strong rebounding, and our inside men have to be tough to keep them from controlling the boards."

Not only are both inside games strong, the outside games are tough too. John Hughes, Victor Valentine and reserves Michael Young and Robert Bishop of Madison and the Minutemen's Dave Johnson, Darrell Rucker and reserve Dave Smith are strong shooters, defenders and excellent ball handlers.

No matter who wins the game, both Graham and Hlaflak believe the winner will be a heavy favorite to win the tournament.

Bunker Hill has a little added incentive to win the game. The Minutemen and Trojans have met in the sectional championship game twice, in 1980 and 1982, and the Minutemen have lost twice.

Madison clobbered the Minutemen 62-45 in 1981, the year the Trojans won the state title, and beat Bunker Hill 72-60 in 1980, the year Madison finished fourth.

"Some of the Madison fans told assistant coach David James that 'We'll get you pretty easy' and that they're looking to Lawrenceville," Hlaflak said.

"We want to prove to them that we're not going to be that easy."

Bunker Hill defeated Venice 60-60 Jan. 26, and Hlaflak feels Bunker Hill can adjust to Madison's speed as easy as they did to Venice's speed.

"We have two or three kids who could keep up with them, and I think that helped us adjust to them and that they had to adjust to us the same way. We'll be able to adjust to Madison's speed, and they'll have to adjust to ours," Hlaflak said.

Graham, who has seen the Minutemen in action this year, knows the Trojans will have a challenge.

"I think it's going to be a close game. I really think this is the best team Bunker Hill has had," Graham said.

In state competition

Surprising wins, losses for mat representatives

By ALAN L. GERSTENECKER
Sports Editor
of the Press-Record

CHAMPION — In state competition, whether it be sports or otherwise, there are inevitably surprising victories and disappointing losses.

That was the case here Friday and Saturday during the 40th annual Illinois High School Association's state wrestling championships.

By the end of competition Friday, the losses overshadowed the victories for the six Granite City wrestlers who competed.

By the end of the quarterfinals, all six had been eliminated from the championship bracket — a disappointing end to otherwise successful seasons for both the Steeler and Warrior mat representatives.

Despite the losses, a few Granite City grapplers managed to do their share of eliminating before packing up and heading for home Saturday.

Granite City North's Colin Davis (96 pounds), Granite City South's Mark Dowdy (155 pounds) and Jon Frangoulis (167 pounds), each picked up two victories before being eliminated in the consolation wrestling brackets.

As a team, the Warriors were 4-5, while the Stealers finished 2-5. The Warriors' victories were good enough for 13 points and tie for 46th place while the Stealers managed nine points, a tie for 57th place, both far behind Class AA winner Chicago-Marist with 91.5 points.

"The competition up here's pretty tough," Steeler coach Walt Whitaker said following one of his wrestler's losses.

"I think part of it is physiological. They were so up for the tournament after the regionals," he said. "But, when their buddies didn't make it (quality for state competition) I think they were all sort of let down," Whitaker said.

Wrestling

losses were those of Granite City North's 126-pound Rod Unger. Going into competition Friday, Unger, posting a perfect 35-0 record, lost two consecutive matches, to fall from competition. "The Grappler," Illinois' wrestling newspaper, seeded the 126-pound Steeler to finish fifth.

In his first match, against Kankakee's Jim Cooper, Unger was penalized four points for stalling, sending the nine-all match into overtime. Cooper scored a takedown in the lengthened match to eventually win 2-1.

In his second match, the 126-pound senior dropped a 7-2 decision in the consolation wrestling bout to Hinsdale Central's Pat Kohl.

"I just psyched myself out," Unger said. "I just didn't have my head on straight in that first match," he said referring to the stalling penalties.

"It was hard for me to come back after that," Unger said.

North's 98-pound representative, Davis, defeated Cedric Garrett of Chicago-Fenger in the first round 4-2, but then lost to Chris Tiemeier 17-1 in the quarterfinals.

"I couldn't believe it," Whitaker said. "Tiemeier just stopped everything. Colin did. Colin was able to execute it all."

Tiemeier, 33-3, went on to finish fourth.

Oddly enough, Althoff's Joe Williams, whom Davis defeated last weekend in the Granite City South Sectional, went on to finish second behind Proviso East's Jesse Glover.

According to "The Grappler," Glover was seeded second, Davis was seeded fifth, while Williams was not seeded in the top five.

Davis, 35-3, picked up his final victory of the season in the first round of the wrestling brackets by pinning Dennis Mitchell of Chicago-St. Patrick in 3:20.

North's third grappler in the tournament, 115-pound Brent McKenney 28-8, lost a preliminary round match to Tony Piotrowski of Wauconda 3-1.

Piotrowski, 39-4, lost in the first round to Tim DalCorobbo of Tinley Park, the eventual second place finisher to Civic Memorial's Kip Kristoff.

Granite City South's Dowdy was by far the most surprising Granite City wrestler at the tournament.

Dowdy, who finished third in the Granite City South Sectional, defeated Chicago-Schurz's Patrick Schott 3-2 in the preliminary round before Don Lallo of Addison Trail pinned the 155-pounder in 1:28.

Lullo went on finish third.

In the consolation wrestling brackets, Dowdy's opponent Jerry McCullum (20-3) in 4:45 before losing to Waukegan's Greg Pipes 15-9 in the consolation quarterfinals.

"I'm gonna feast this weekend then start working for next year next week," Warrior coach Bill "Red" Schmitt was equally pleased with Dowdy's performance.

"Dowdy did an exceptional job for us this weekend. He was battling a cold earlier in the week and he still came up here and won two for us. I can't complain about that."

"Usually all I ask of a junior is that he gets up there to experience state competition. Dowdy did that and more."

Schmitt said.

South's 167 pounder, Frangoulis, defeated Larry Brasfield of Rockford-Gullford 6-1 in first round before falling to Franklin Park's Tim Cazzato 2-1 in the quarterfinals.

In the consolation wrestling brackets, the brawny senior defeated Chicago Heights' Leonardo Watts 5-4. Frangoulis downed 2-3 at the four minute mark, came back to score two escapes to win the match.

"Coach Schmitt told me it looked like he was vulnerable to a single leg pick, so I tried it and was able to take him down," a winded Frangoulis said after the match.

Frangoulis was eliminated in the next round, the semifinal wrestling bouts, by Steve Schrey of Crystal Lake-South, 9-6.

Things didn't look good for Frangoulis through the second period as he trailed 7-0 after four minutes.

In the final period, however, Frangoulis began racking up the points with a series of takedowns and escapes.

"Had had another 30 seconds in it and I think I could have caught him," Frangoulis said. "He was slacking off and I could feel him tiring. I just wish I would've had more time."

Schrey went on to finish fifth.

Brown, South's final grappler, lost a first round decision to Rolling Meadows' Rick Hufus 19-6. Hufus, 37-7, scored a managed three takedowns and an escape for the victory.

In wrestling action involving other area grapplers, Civic Memorial's Kristoff nailed down his second state championship by defeating DalCorobbo 6-3 in the 112 pound championship. Last year, as a freshman, Kristoff won the 98-pound title.

There were two other two-time winners in the tournament. Rock Island's Tim Wright won the 119 pound title by pinning Tony Romano of Barrington in 2:23. Last year, Wright a senior, won the 112 pound division.

The third two-time champion was Hoffman Estates' Tracy Rice. Rice, a 41-0 senior, defeated Yancy Milligan of Freeport 11-8 for the championship. Rice also won the division last year.

The 'State' of GC grapplers

Six Granite City grapplers competed in state competition this past weekend in the 46th annual IHSA state tournament at the University of Illinois' Assembly Hall.

Beginning below, and going clockwise, are the six athletes during and after competition.

Below are South's Jon Frangoulis as he competed against Steve Schrey in the wrestlebacks.

Referee Edwin Luety acknowledges Mark Dowdy as the winner in a 155 pound wrestleback bout. Dowdy pinned Urbana's Jerry McCullum for the victory. North's Colin Davis works on Chicago-

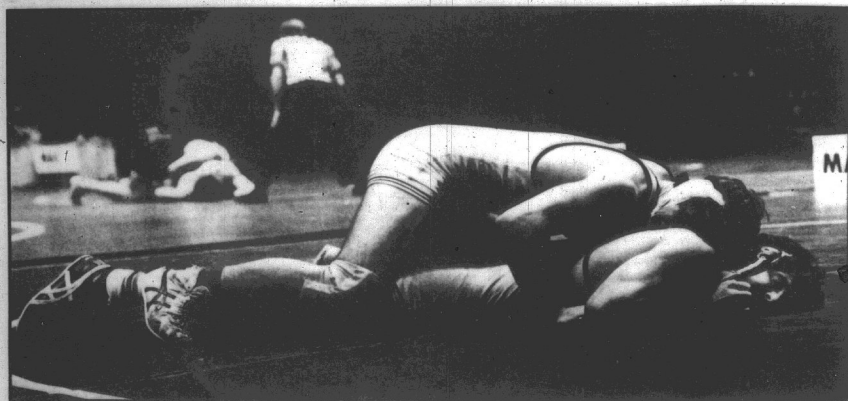

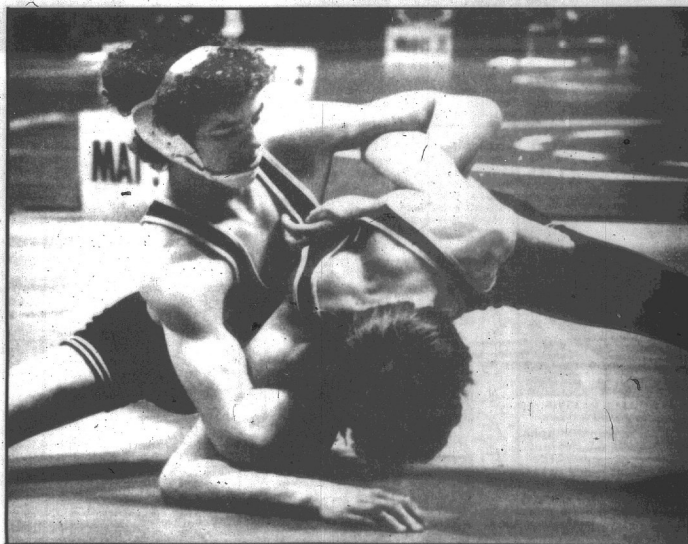

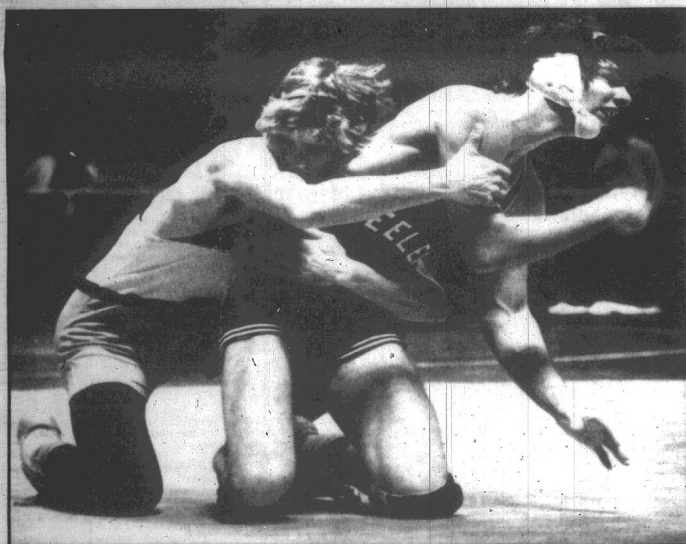

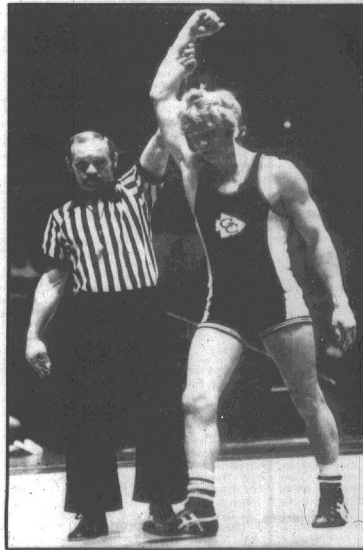

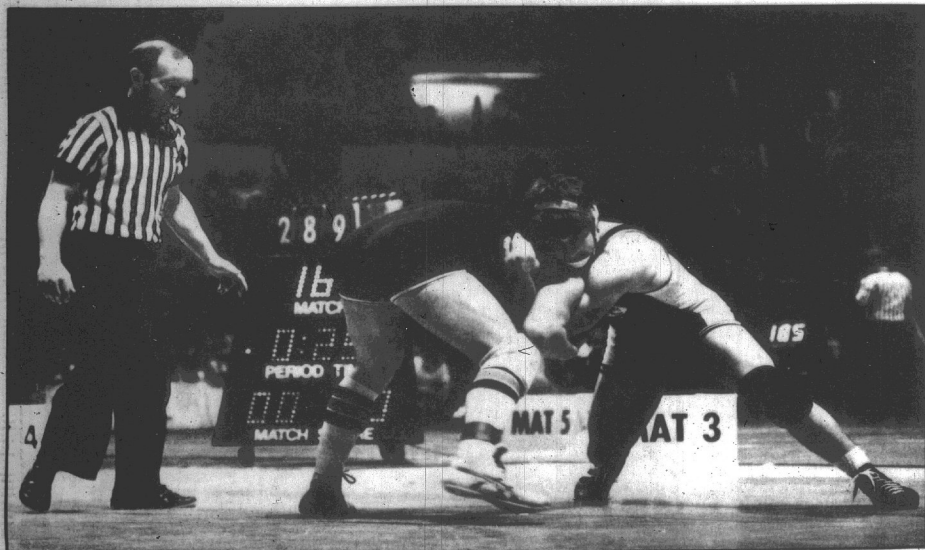

St. Patrick's Dennis Mitchell during their 98-pound first-round wrestleback. Davis pinned Mitchell in 3:20.

Steeler assistant coach Jim Harsh consoles North's 112 pound Brent McKenney following his preliminary round loss to Tony Plafrowski of Wauconda.

Rolling Meadows' Rick Hufnus works over South's Dave Brown during their first round 185-pound matchup. Hufnus defeated Brown 10-6 to advance into the quarterfinals.

North's Rod Unger attempts to sit out as Kankakee's Jim Cooper moves for a takedown. Cooper won their 126 pound matchup to advance to the championship quarterfinal round.

Sumpter boosts Wilcoats past Red Devils 78-67

By ROGER KRAMER
of the Press-Record

DUPUO — Barry Sumpter, Lovejoy's 6-11 center, usually has to fight for every point he gets. It's not because teams can prevent him from scoring, but because his teammates don't pass to him often.

While Daryn Foster, Von Miller and the other Wilcoats are gunning away, Sumpter usually has to rely on scoring off offensive rebounds.

Lovejoy coach Ted Daniels, finding his team was trailing to a much shorter Venice team by one point Thursday in a semifinal game of the Dupu Class A Regional, suggested the Wilcoats pass to Sumpter in the second half.

The strategy worked. Sumpter, at least 13 inches taller than any Red Devil starter, scored 27 points to lead the Wilcoats to a 78-67 win over Venice.

During the first half, Sumpter scored 11 points and blocked three shots. However, Sumpter didn't control the boards. People like 5-9 Keith Marchbanks and 5-7 Eddie Salmond were getting in position and taking rebounds away from Sumpter.

Offensively, the Wilcoats got the ball to Sumpter occasionally in the first half, but the Wilcoats ran their offense as they usually do and made Sumpter work for all 11 points.

"If they would have played the whole game like they usually do, we would have won the game," Venice coach Ken Perkins said.

Venice, thanks to extraordinary individual efforts, held the lead throughout the first and second quarters. The Red Devils got strong outside shooting and surprising rebounding from Salmond, Marchbanks, William Watts and Phillip White in the first half.

Venice made 50 percent of its shots, 16 of 32, in the first half.

The Red Devils once had a nine-point lead, but Venice missed four shots and one free throw in the final three minutes of the second quarter and Lovejoy scored eight straight points to cut the lead to one.

"They shot the hell out of the ball," Daniels said of Venice. "Boy, did they shoot!"

Daniels wanted to save his feelings about the regional until after the championship game and told reporters they couldn't interview any of the players after Thursday's game.

Nevertheless, Daniels said his plan for the game was simple. Get the ball to Sumpter.

Lovejoy did just that in the second half. Sumpter scored the Wilcoats' first three baskets in the quarter, giving Lovejoy a two-point lead. After that, Venice wasn't the same team.

For example, Venice forced four turnovers in one minute during the third quarter, but the Red Devils could only score two points during that span.

"He (Sumpter) intimidated us," Perkins said. "When you got a seven-footer going against a 5-foot-9 player, you know who's going to be better offensively. He also makes it easier on defense because if their outside people make mistakes, they still have the big stopper in there."

Despite Sumpter's emergence, Lovejoy only had a two-point lead at the end of the third quarter, 53-51. Lovejoy didn't put the game out of reach until the final four minutes of the game. The Wilcoats made 10 of 16 free throws in that span to clinch the game.

Sumpter wasn't the only offensive tool Lovejoy had. Miller scored 18 points and Foster added 17 points for the Wilcoats.

Venice, on the other hand, lost its deadly touch from outside in the fourth quarter. Marchbanks fouled out of the game with 3:21 to go, and White and Salmond were cold from the field that quarter.

Most teams with the lack of height Venice had this season would have folded long before the fourth quarter against Sumpter and company. Most teams that had Venice's height wouldn't have ended the season with a 21-5 record.

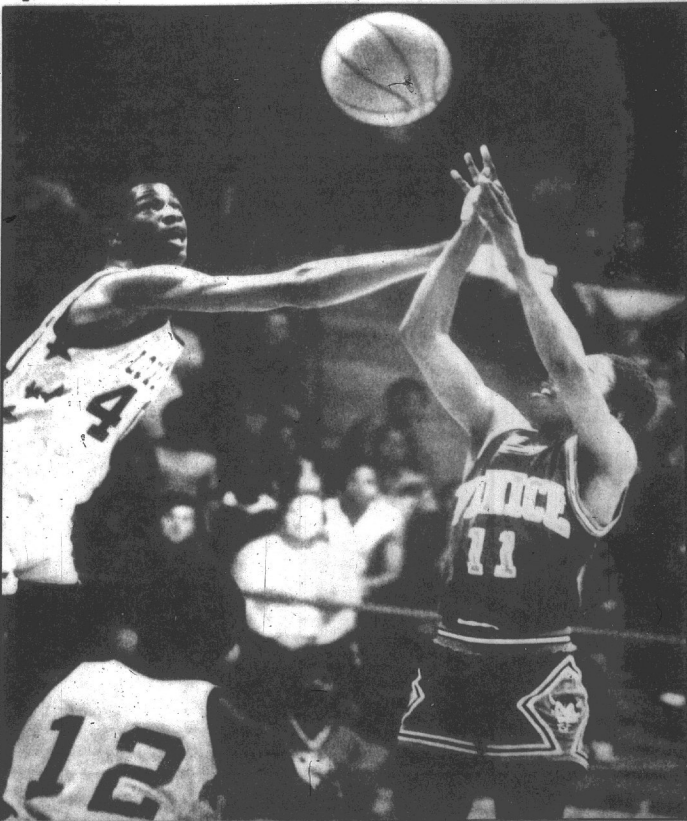

"I can only think of one game this season where we didn't give 100 percent. Who would have thought we could have finished so well with the height we had?" Perkins asked. "We have no reason to be ashamed. We had a few lapses in our full court press, but they had so much height over us."

"We outplayed them in the first half. We had excellent dribbling, rebounding and shooting. You couldn't have asked for more, hustle from our boys," Perkins said.

White led the scoring for Venice with 22 points. Salmond added 18 points, and Marchbanks put in 11 points.

"We have some good people coming back next year. Salmond, White, Darrin Wise and quite a few others are going to be back. We're still going to be short, but we should be pretty good," Perkins said.

Venice 18 17 16 16-67
Lovejoy 15 19 19 25-78
VENICE (67): Salmond 9 0-1 18, Watts 4 0-0 8, White 8 6-7 22, Marchbanks 5 1-11, Ervin 0 3-3 3, Wise 2 1-5 5, PG 28, FT 11-23, PF 21.
LOVEJOY (78): Miller 7 4-6 18, Foster 7 3-5 17, Miller 0 1-1 1, Simms 4 1-2 9, Bates 3 0-0 6, Sumpter 11 5-6 27, PG 32, FT 14-21, PF 17.

TOO LATE. Venice's Eddie Salmond (10) gets his shot up in the air long before Barry Sumpter (40), Lovejoy's 6-foot-11 center could block it.

Salmond's basket was good, but the Red Devils still lost to Lovejoy 78-67 Thursday in a semifinal game of the Dupu Class A Regional.

Globetrotters to perform at Checkerdome

After completing an eight month, 240-game season, nobody could blame Geese Ausbie if he spent the entire off season in a rocking chair on the front porch of his home in Little Rock, Ark.

Of course, anyone who thinks that, just does not know Ausbie. Ausbie is the bundle of energy who is right in the middle of the rany antics that make the Harlem Globetrotters the most famous sports team in the world today.

The Globetrotters bring their basketball magic to

The Checkerdome for two fun-packed games + Saturday, March 5 at 1:30 p.m. and Sunday, March 6 at 3 p.m.

St. Louis is just one stop on a back-breaking tour that would leave most athletes ready for a long vacation. But Ausbie spends his free time with his demanding state of civic involvement.

"I like being with people and I like helping people," explained Ausbie. "The community of Little Rock has been good to me and my family, so I want to give something back."

Many hours are devoted to the Arkansas Children's Hospital and the Little Rock chapter of the Muscular Dystrophy Association. When a charity needs help with a fund-raising drive, Ausbie is right there.

Actually, Ausbie is a native of Oklahoma, where he was the state high school scoring champion for four consecutive years. He moved to Little Rock to star for the basketball team at Philander Smith College.

In his final college season, Ausbie averaged 28.2 points per game, which was better than the records compiled by such outstanding players as Wilt Chamberlain, Guy Rogers and Jerry West.

After college, Ausbie had offers in baseball, as well as basketball. Even though offered a contract by the Chicago Cubs, Ausbie picked the Globetrotters and basketball.

"I knew the Globetrotters would give a chance to really enjoy myself and give me personality freedom," Ausbie noted.

On the court, Ausbie certainly is a "free spirit." He may help the vendors sell popcorn, a lady sort through her purse or an opponent lose track of the basketball. "We have fun and so do the fans," stresses Ausbie. Maybe that is why the Globetrotters are magic to everyone of all ages.

Tickets for the Harlem Globetrotters are priced at $6.50, $7.00 and $6.50 with a $1.50 off for children.

Tickets are available at The Checkerdome box office, all Famous Barr ticketmaster locations, Team, Dogs, Tickets or by calling Dialtax to charge to MasterCard or Visa at 644-1700.

Groups of 25 or more receive $2.00 per ticket by calling the Checkerdome Group Sales department at 644-0900.

YMCA begins Volleyball

The Tri-City Area YMCA will be starting a Volleyball league on Thursday evening, and teams interested in playing in the league are asked to attend a meeting at the YMCA Thursday, March 3, at 6 p.m.

Volleyball is a combination of racquetball and basketball. Games are played on a racquetball court with a volleyball and net. Teams interested should contact the YMCA at 678-7299.

The Granite City Park District and the Alton Pepsi Cola Bottling Company are sponsoring a basketball tournament for third, fourth and fifth grade children at 9 a.m. March 5 at Coolidge Junior High School.

Prizes will be awarded in all age groups. Contestants have several minutes to score from different spots on the floor, and high scorers receive awards.

All local youngsters, including those who did not attend the Park District basketball program, can enter the tournament.

Warriors split weekend contests

The Granite City South Warrior cage squad split a pair of games this past weekend against Bethalto Friday night and Gateway East Conference rival Cahokia Saturday night.

Friday, the Warriors picked up their fifth win of the season, downing the Eagles 58-43.

In Saturday's contest, the Warrior's last of the season, the Comanches defeated the Warriors 64-37. The pair of weekend results adjusts the Warrior season record to 5-16.

The Warriors begin regional action this week, playing host to Collinsville, Triad and North.

Steeler cagers split weekend pair; down Shells

By ROGER KRAMER

ALTON — Even though the Class AA Regionals begin this week, Alton basketball coach Stan McAfoss is still baffled by the inconsistent play of his Redbirds.

Somewhat, the Redbirds managed to get over their inconsistency for a minute to topple Granite City North 65-55 Saturday in a non-conference game at Alton.

On Friday, the Steelers shook off a fourth quarter comeback attempt by Roxana and beat the Shells 63-61 at Roxana. North finished the regular season with a 3-1 record and will play Collinsville Tuesday in the first round of the Granite City South Class AA Regional Tournament.

Time and time again, the Alton Redbirds have played up to the caliber of the teams they have faced this year.

The Redbirds did play up to par against North.

The Redbirds took a 16-8 lead in the first quarter and threatened to blow the Steelers away in the second quarter. Alton decided to open up the middle to the Steelers, and North cut a 12-point lead to a two-point lead.

The Steelers' Steve Trittschuh and Daren DePew found the inside to their liking, and Alton scored only two points in the last four minutes of the quarter to allow North to come back.

"This time it was in the second quarter instead of the fourth quarter," McAfoss said. "We got too much of a lead in the first quarter, and the kids merely played to their level."

"This time it was in the second quarter instead of the fourth quarter," McAfoss said. "We got too much of a lead in the first quarter, and the kids merely played to their level."

Alton struggled to a four-point lead at the end of the third quarter, but things were soon to go Alton's way. Trittschuh fouled out with 57 seconds left in the third quarter. North soon found the way to the basketball much tougher.

Alton outscored the Steelers 8-2 in the first five minutes of the quarter to take a 55-45 lead. The Redbirds had few worries after that.

"It's hard to come from behind like we had to do," North coach Bill Ohlen-dorf said. "We had to take outside shots, and we just didn't hit them. Alton was so quick, and they were able to get position under the basket and score from inside."

The Steelers had problems penetrating the Redbirds' 1-3-1 zone in the last quarter and were forced to settle with low-percentage perimeter shots.

North also had problems making the easy shots earlier in the game. Ohlen-dorf thought the Steelers missed five or six easy lay-ups in the first half which could have given them the game.

"Those have to be a big factor in the outcome of the game," Ohlen-dorf said. DePew led North with 14 points, Scott Cant put in 13 points, and Trittschuh added 11 points for the Steelers. Brad Collier scored 23 points for Alton, Darold Randol had 14 points, and Ricky Taylor added 12 for the Redbirds.

Cant, only a sophomore, played a big part in North's win over Roxana. The 4 center scored 22 points to lead the Steelers to victory.

Roxana had a four point lead through halftime, but North outscored the Shells 19-16 in the third period, the Steelers needed every bit of the nine point difference to hold off Roxana.

Brian Levin added 14 points for North.

Brad Haug, the Shells' top scorer this season, put in 25 points to help his team out.

"Our boys have really learned a lot this year. They've listened to the coaches' constructive, and mostly boisterous, criticism this year, and they've really come a long ways this season," Ohlen-dorf said.

"I hope the boys have picked up something from this season that they can use later on in their lives," Ohlen-dorf said.

Warrior cagers fall to Triad in Juhasz's absence

ST. JACOB — Although Granite City South's girls basketball team didn't play until 8 p.m. Thursday at Triad High School, the game might have been decided that afternoon in Granite City.

Guard Kathy Juhasz, who has taken some of the scoring pressure of South center Trish Skinner, had to leave school early Thursday because of illness. Her absence was definitely felt in the Warrior's 54-51 loss to Triad Thursday in a non-conference game.

Out of our points, 49 were scored by our center and two forwards and only two were scored by our guards. We've come to depend on Kathy as a shooting guard, and when we don't have her, we're in trouble," South coach Gary Morgan said.

Without Juhasz in the line-up, Skinner again had to take up the bulk of the Warriors' scoring. She responded by scoring 32 points for the game.

The critical quarter for South in the close game was the third quarter. South's offense, which relies on quickness to work effectively, didn't move quickly, allowing Triad to set up around Skinner. The senior only scored three points that quarter.

"Some teams use speed or height to get their offense going, and our spark is the element of confusion," Morgan said. "If we get the ball down the court quickly, they can't set up and we can pass the ball to Trish underneath for two. That's how we benefit by confusion."

Skinner made up for her lack of scoring that quarter by scoring 17 points in the fourth quarter. However, Triad made 13 of 16 free throws in the final period to ensure the victory.

"We had to foul to have a chance to win, but they hit the big key throws at the end," Morgan said.

Lisa Adams also scored 10 points for the Warriors.

South, 4-12 this season plays its final home game of the year tonight against Edwardsville. The Gateway East Conference game begins at 7:30 with the junior varsity starting at 6 p.m.

Morgan did not know if Juhasz would be available for Monday's game.

Q. What would happen if I made an overpayment on a credit card?
A. Overpayment, paying more than the balance due on the account - can and does happen. The most common situation is when someone returns merchandise for credit, then makes a payment, paying off the balance of the account and forgets about the credit. In such a situation, one of two things may happen. First of all the creditor must give you a refund if you request it, whenever you have overpaid your balance by one dollar or more. Such requests can typically be made by mail, although the request can also be made via telephone. Many businesses and financial institutions which issue credit cards will credit your account with the amount of the overpayment. This will be reflected on your regular monthly billing. This will be applied when you next use the credit card against the resulting balance due, once again, you may request a refund if the overpayment is a dollar or more.

Drivers can't ignore tickets

By HOLLY HEADLAND

SPRINGFIELD — Despite a new state law that went into effect last September increasing the possibility of driver's license suspensions for motorists who ignore parking tickets, the secretary of state's office has yet to receive a single license suspension order from circuit court clerks.

Motorists who receive 10 or more parking tickets or two or more moving violations may have their licenses suspended until they pay their fines, according to Mike Walters, an aide in Secretary of State Jim Edgar's office.

Municipalities may not have taken advantage of the law yet, Walters said, which could explain the lack of suspension orders. He added since motorists had 60 days to pay their fines after the law was passed and signed, the secretary of state's office would not have begun receiving suspension orders until November.

Under the law, a warrant is issued by the circuit court clerks against the motorist who has not paid the fines. The motorist's license will be suspended after 60 days by the secretary of state's office if the motorist has not paid the fines, Walters said.

Motorists receive the stock suspension for the license which tells them their license has been suspended for an indefinite period, Walters said. As soon as the fines are paid, the license is reinstated.

In large municipalities such as Chicago, it takes time to trace the large number of violators, Walters said. However, he added he is expecting suspension notification from municipalities soon.

The law should help clear up the number of violations, but it is "way too early to tell the effect the law will have," he added.

Some cities have had success under the new law by simply sending out warning letters to motorists telling them about the law and what will happen if they do not pay up, Walters said.

When the law was passed last year by the General Assembly, supporters said it would help in getting motorists to take heed of the unpaid parking violations. Some also said it might help some cities generate more revenue.

TV TEASERS

1. Louis Armstrong, the great jazz trumpeter, was making TV appearances in the '50s. What was his personal trademark?

2. What year did "Meet the Press" begin airing? This show put political celebrities on public view every week as they answered searching questions from skilled reporters.

3. Name the CBS series. Clues: Debuted in 1974... Bachelor Robert Dreyfuss portrayed by actor-comedian Paul Sand... He's a bass violinist for the Boston Symphony Orchestra... When not fiddling, he sorts out his romantic entanglements, referees disputes between his brother (Michael Pataki) and sister-in-law (Penny Marshall), and spars with a hostile orchestra manager (Dick Wesson).

ANSWERS:

1. Crumpled handkerchief for mopping his brow
2. 1947
3. Paul Sand in "Friends and Lovers"

Susan's roots are in Texas

By ALAN L. GANSBERG

HOLLYWOOD — Of all the "Dallas" cast members, only two are really from the state of Texas — LARRY HAGMAN and SUSAN HOWARD. And Susan holds the distinction of having retained both her roots in the state and her Texas twang.

The show's Dorina Culver is from Marshall — population 24,000 — and has land and a house near the hometown, which she visits frequently along with husband CALVIN CHRAINE.

"Marshall was a great place to grow up," Susan said. "It's my home. My roots are there. That's why we have a place and some land there."

"We don't get to go back often, but that's OK. If I went back too often maybe I wouldn't remember what it was, I'd notice whatever change had taken place."

The native Texan loves her series, but admits that "Dallas" doesn't really capture the spirit of Texas.

"It's a neat little show," she insisted, "but I don't think the spirit of the state comes across on the screen. I think the movie 'Giant' was closer to what Texas really is."

Filming on this season's episodes ends March 9, at which time Susan will travel to The Netherlands to promote the series there. She'd also like to be part of the proposed "Dallas" feature, but has yet to be informed if her character is part of that script.

"No one knows if anybody is in the 'Dallas' movie," she admitted. "No one has even seen a completed script. But then, the actors are always the last to know."

She's also in discussions with CBS about doing a TV movie, and has those scripts to mull over.

Off screen, Susan admits that Calvin and she "are pretty private people. Hollywood as a wild town is pretty much a figment of people's minds."

Her father worked for the railroad, and Susan collects railroad antiques, "things from the old days when there were personal cars."

This year's model-turned-movie-star could be ANDIE MCDOWELL, who has been tagged as Jane to CHRISTOPHER LAMBERT's Tarzan in the upcoming feature "Greystoke."

He seems so clean-cut, but former "Flamingo Road" star MARK HARMON will play a tennis pro whose romantic life backfires in "Lovesick: The Herpes Story," an upcoming ABC movie.

TIMOTHY HUTTON will star in "Iceman," a feature about an anthropologist who discovers a prehistoric being that had been frozen in ice. He just finished work on "The Book of Daniel" in New York.

Willing to try a series yet another time is WAYNE ROGERS. NBC has him in tow for a go-round as an inquiring photographer.

JOAN COLLINS has reportedly split from her husband, RON KASS, but they're still good friends.

The presidential election is many moons away, but Hollywood is uniting behind various candidates. WARREN BEATTY and ROBERT REDFORD have joined the campaign of Sen. GARY HART of Colorado, and are helping to launch his trek to Washington.

Back on Broadway for the first time in too many years is EVE ARDEN, who is in the cast of "Moose Murders," which is hopefully a comedy.

First it was LANA TURNER, now ANNE JEFFREYS will guest star in episodes of CBS's "Falcon Crest." Meanwhile, "Knots Landing" has lured JOANNA PETTET for a recurring role.

SCOTT BAIO fans will be happy to hear that the demise of "Joanie Loves Chachi," he's expected to return to "Happy Days" next season. And yes, it appears that the ABC longtime hit comedy will be back for season No. 11.

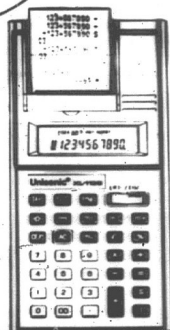

SHERA DANESE, also known as Mrs. PETER FALK, plays girlfriend to TIM CONWAY in the upcoming CBS series "Ace Crawford, Private Eye."
